

The average Facebook user is a member of only 12 groups.

You don't say!

To find a group, try using the search box at the top of each page to find organizations by their name or topic. If you are interested in creating your own group, visit the URL below and consider creating your own.

Fan Pages

We highly recommend your organization create a Facebook Fan Page. Why? Well, for starters, a recent study found that the average Facebook user becomes a fan of 2 pages each month. That could be YOUR page!

What is a Facebook Fan Page?

Because American Majority is an organization dedicated to the grassroots, we've set up a presence on Facebook to reach people without going through the mainstream media. A Page is essentially a Facebook Profile for your group. Pages allow your organization to publish content and interact with individual much in the same way you do as an individual person. The implications here should be very evident: you can create a culture, interact with members/customers, and build a brand image by engaging with fans one on one. Pages should be used by companies, organizations, products, celebrities, politicians and other entities that need to represent their "brand" on Facebook. The biggest difference is that as an individual, you have friends. As a Page, your organization can accumulate fans.

Become a Fan

It is important to note that as a creator of the group's Facebook Page, you will be invisible to other users. This means that any member of your organization can create and maintain the page without others knowing who holds that administrative responsibility.

America, the Owner's Manual Bob Graham,Chris Hand,2016-07-15 In 2016 Americans fed up with the political process vented that frustration with their votes Republicans nominated for president a wealthy businessman and former reality show host best known on the campaign trail for his sharp rhetoric against immigration and foreign trade Democrats nearly selected a self described socialist who ran on a populist platform against the influence of big money in politics While it is not surprising that Americans would channel their frustrations into votes for contenders who pledge to end business as usual the truth is that we don t have to pin our hopes for greater participation on any one candidate All of us have a say if we learn master and practice the skills of effective citizenship One of the biggest roadblocks to participation in democracy is the perception that privileged citizens and special interests command the levers of power and that everyday Americans can t fight City Hall That perception is undoubtedly why a 2015 Pew Charitable Trusts survey found that 74 percent of those Americans surveyed believed that most elected officials didn t care what people like them thought Graham and Hand intend to change that conventional wisdom by showing citizens how to flex their citizenship muscles They describe effective citizenship skills and provide tips from civic experts Even more importantly they offer numerous examples of everyday Americans who have used their skills to make democracy respond The reader will see themselves in these examples of citizens who chose to be victorious participants rather than tranquil spectators in the arena of democracy By the end of the book you will have new confidence that citizen participation is the lifeblood of America and will be ready to make governments work for you not the other way around
