Karl Barth's Theology as a Resource for a Christian Theology of Religions Sven Ensminger, 2014-08-28 This book uses Karl Barth s theology as a resource for Christian theology of religions For this purpose it examines Barth s theology under the doctrinal aspects of revelation revelation and religion theological anthropology and election addressing questions such as the possibility of and context for revelation Barth s understanding of religion the theological approach to the human being and soteriology Furthermore Barth s thought is put into conversation with other approaches in the field of theology of religions notably Karl Rahner s inclusivism and John Hick and the pluralist paradigm It is shown that Barth s theological system as a whole can serve as a resource for the Christian approach to and interaction with those of other faiths or no faith at all This is achieved through maintaining a balance between the commitment to the own faith and the openness to the sovereignty of God impacting the whole of creation Central to Barth s approach is the challenge to the Christian community to see their presuppositions challenged in the most unexpected circumstances while looking beyond human categories to affirm the dignity bestowed upon all of humanity through the divine Yes in the person Jesus Christ Barth's theology with its starting point in the person of Jesus Christ is advocated as a framework for the members of the Christian community as they live alongside those with a different faith from their own

Christology in Christian-Muslim Dialogue Rev Fr Dr Robert Afayori, 2021-02-11 Understanding the religious beliefs and practices of the other raises hermeneutic questions on the extent to which the dialogical call to openness is related to commitment the meaning of religious identity and whether openness to the beliefs of the other poses a threat to one's religious identity If interreligious learning demands that the interlocutors unite their attitude of commitment and openness how does this occur without the loss of alterity This book addresses these questions within the context of Christian-Muslim dialogue on Christology as an exercise in learning a new form of dialogue which leads Christians and Muslims to the discovery of common values such as prayer and submission to God peace and peaceful co-existence and solidarity with the poor and marginalised

The Immanent Divine John J. Thatamanil, While traditional Christian thought and spirituality have always affirmed the divine presence in human life Thatamanil argues we have much to learn from non-dualistic Hindu thought especially that of the eighth century thinker Sankara and from the Christian panentheism of Paul Tillich Thatamanil compares their diagnoses and prognoses of the human predicament in light of their doctrine of God or Ultimate Reality What emerges is a new theology of God and human beings with a richer and more radical conception of divine immanence a reconceived divine transcendence and a keener sense of how the dynamic and active Spirit at work in us anchors real hope and deep joy Using key insights from Christian and Hindu thought Thatamanil vindicates comparative theology expands the vocabulary about the ineffable God and arrives at a new construal of the problems and prospects of the human condition

Christian and Islamic Theology of Religions Esra Akay Dag, 2017-04-21 Theologians have had to increasingly engage with beliefs and practises outside of their own traditions The resultant theology of religions is however often formulated in isolation from the religions they are describing This book provides a comparison of the development of theology of religions in Western Christianity and its application in an Islamic context It also shows the parallels between some specific forms of theology of religions i e exclusivism inclusivism or pluralism in both Islamic and Christian traditions The arguments of Christian and Muslim theologians including the specific contributions of Rowan Williams and Jerusha Lamptey are examined in order to reveal the interconnections and contradictions of their pluralist exclusivist and inclusivist approaches This provides a rounded picture of Christian Muslim understanding of religious others and prepares the ground for a stronger and more sophisticated Islamic theology of religions This is vital reading for those studying theology of religions comparative theology and interfaith relations God in Postliberal Perspective Mr Robert Andrew Cathey, 2013-05-28 Who is God The variety of images of God tends to overwhelm us in the present age Is God a fiction of human construction or a reality that makes claims upon how we practice faith in God How does this quest for an understanding of God illumine who we are God in Postliberal Perspective presents an introduction to the doctrine and concept of God in contemporary philosophy and theology exploring how some theologians and philosophers dare to speak of God as real in our sceptical pluralistic and interfaith age Robert Cathey tours the house of realism as constructed by postliberal Christians David Burrell William Placher Bruce Marshall in conversation with living communities of faith and critical work in philosophy and theology and develops a distinctive argument about the relation of realism and non realism in constructing the doctrine of God in postliberal theology Offering a reading of postliberal theology which is open to critical discussion with other types of theology philosophy and faith traditions this book proposes a model of theological reflection that may be extended to the reality claims of a wide range of doctrines and concepts Interpreting Interreligious Relations with Wittgenstein: Philosophy, Theology and Religious Studies , 2019-09-02 This volume argues that Wittgenstein s philosophy of religion and his thought in general continue to be highly relevant for present and future research on interreligious relations Spanning several sub disciplines from philosophy of religion philosophy of language comparative philosophy comparative theology to religious studies the contributions engage with recent developments in interpretation of Wittgenstein and those in the philosophy and theology of interreligious encounter The book shows that there is an important and under explored potential for constructive and fruitful engagement between these academic fields It explores and attempts to realize some of this potential by involving both philosophers and theologians and critically assesses previous applications of Wittgenstein s work in interreligious studies Contributors are Gorazd Andrej Guy Bennett Hunter Mikel Burley Thomas D Carroll Paul Cortois Rhiannon Grant Randy Ramal Klaus von Stosch Varja trajn Nuno Venturinha Sebastjan V r s and Daniel H Weiss Fragrant Rivers of Wisdom A. Christian van Gorder, 2021-12-09 Buddhism and Christianity are ancient rich and multivalent wisdom spirituality traditions that often have insightful similarities as well as distinct perspectives from entirely different starting points Fragrant Rivers of Wisdom explores some of these paths and encourages readers to gain as far as is possible a participant's appreciation of another faith. This book aims to help readers celebrate and enjoy the rich wisdom legacies of a teacher revealing a pure lotus blossoming from mud and the legacies of a peasant Jewish carpenter from Galilee revealing love on a cross. Both teachers share the power of love, the joys of healing, encouragement and the creative resources of spirit-filled living. Their ancient words and their modern communities still following these paths are dynamically relevant for our modern context of confusion and challenge.

Interactive Pluralism in Asia Simone Sinn, Tong Wing Sze, 2016-11-01 In den heutigen multiethnischen und multikulturellen asiatischen Kontexten ist religiöse Vielfalt für viele Gesellschaften kennzeichnend. Dieses Buch bietet neue Einblicke in die gegenwärtige Situation des religiösen Lebens in Hongkong, Indien, Indonesien, Japan, Malaysia und Myanmar, beleuchtet den Einfluss religiöser Engagements im öffentlichen Raum und stellt dar, wie christliche Theologie sich mit den gegenwärtigen Realitäten in Asien auseinandersetzt. Christliche Theologen aus verschiedenen Denominationen reflektieren in diesem Band auf faszinierende Weise über Rechtfertigung, Erlösung, den Heiligen Geist und die Trinität und diskutieren die wechselseitigen komplexen Entwicklungen sowohl in und als auch zwischen den asiatischen Gesellschaften und weltweit. In today's multi-ethnic and multi-cultural Asian contexts, religious plurality is one of the hallmarks of many societies. This book provides new insights into the current realities of religious life in Hong Kong, India, Indonesia, Japan, Malaysia, and Myanmar, highlights the influence of religious commitment on the public space, and examines how Christian theology engages with contemporary realities in Asia. Christian theologians of different denominations offer fascinating theological reflections on justification, salvation, the Holy Spirit, and the Trinity, and discuss interactions within and between Asian societies as well as with the world at large.

Religious Pluralism and Pragmatist Theology Jan-Olav Henriksen, 2019-07-22 Inspired by pragmatism, this book addresses religious plurality with the aim of bringing forth how it may be approached constructively by Christian theology. Accordingly, not doctrine but practices are focussed in its analyses of interreligious topics. Henriksen argues that engagement with the diversity of religious traditions should be grounded in openness towards the other and resistance against making others similar to oneself. Accordingly, the book presents a theological approach where interaction between religious practitioners is considered a benefit and a necessity for the positive future of religious traditions. It will be of interest to anyone who is interested in the understanding of religious pluralism from the point of view of Christian theology.

Religions and Dialogue Wolfram Weiße, Katajun Amirpur, Anna Körs, Dörthe Vieregge, 2014 Responding to plurality is a demanding task. Nonetheless, it is one of the challenges that European countries are facing today. Over the past decades, the social and religious make-up of Central Europe has changed, and this has led to resentment and fears of mass immigration, social disintegration, and the emergence of parallel societies. However, we also find empirical proof that prejudice is lowest where there is direct contact. Therefore, there appears to be an increasing need for more dialogue in order to make the stranger less strange, the unknown known, the other no longer entirely other. This is equally true in academic research. There is a definite need yet research on questions of interreligious dialogue remains in its infancy throughout the various disciplines engaged in it The project Religion and Dialogue in Modern Societies ReDi that started at the Academy of World Religions at the Hamburg University in 2011 seeks to contribute to remedying this deficit Like the ReDi Project this book looks at dialogue from different perspectives It includes both theoretical and empirical approaches as well as a variety of theological viewpoints on a theology of plurality and dialogue from the perspective of different religions The Routledge Handbook of Buddhist-Christian Studies Carol Anderson, Thomas Cattoi, 2022-09-30 Buddhist Christian dialogue has a long and complex history that stretches back to the first centuries of the common era Comprising 42 international and disciplinarily diverse chapters this volume begins by setting up a framework for examining the nature of Buddhist Christian interreligious dialogue discussing how research in this area has been conducted in the past and considering future theoretical directions Subsequent chapters delve into important episodes in the history of Buddhist Christian dialogue contemporary conversations such as monastic interreligious dialogue multiple religious identity and dual religious practice and Buddhist Christian cooperation in social justice social engagement pastoral care and interreligious education settings The volume closes with a section devoted to comparative and constructive explorations of different speculative themes that range from the theological to the philosophical or experiential This handbook explores how the study of Buddhist Christian relations has been and ought to be done The Routledge Handbook of Buddhist Christian Studies is essential reading for researchers and students interested in Buddhist Christian studies Asian religions and interreligious relationships It will be of interest to those in fields such as anthropology political science theology and history Evangelization and Religious Freedom Stephen B. Bevans, SVD and Jeffrey Gros, FSC, This volume summarizes Catholic approaches to mission evangelization and religious freedom in light of the text and debates of Vatican II's documents on the subjects Ad Gentes and Dignitatis Humanae traces the documents reception in the forty years since their publication and reflects on their significance for today
