Lives of the Novelists John Sutherland, 2012-03-27 No previous author has attempted a book such as this a complete history of novels written in the English language from the genre's seventeenth century origins to the present day In the spirit of Dr Johnson's Lives of the Poets acclaimed critic and scholar John Sutherland selects 294 writers whose works illustrate the best of every kind of fiction from gothic penny dreadful and pornography to fantasy romance and high literature Each author was chosen Professor Sutherland explains because his or her books are well worth reading and are likely to remain so for at least another century Sutherland presents these authors in chronological order in each case deftly combining a lively and informative biographical sketch with an opinionated assessment of the writer's work Taken together these novelists provide both a history of the novel and a guide to its rich variety Always entertaining and sometimes shocking Sutherland considers writers as diverse as Daniel Defoe Henry James James Joyce Edgar Allan Poe Virginia Woolf Michael Crichton Jeffrey Archer and Jacqueline Susann Written for all lovers of fiction Lives of the Novelists succeeds both as introduction and re introduction as Sutherland presents favorite and familiar novelists in new ways and transforms the less favored and less familiar through his relentlessly fascinating readings

After Postmodernism Christopher K. Coffman, Theophilus Savvas, 2020-12-17 Several of American literature's most prominent authors and many of their most perceptive critics and reviewers argue that fiction of the last quarter century has turned away from the tendencies of postmodernist writing Yet the nature of that turn and the defining qualities of American fiction after postmodernism remain less than clear This volume identifies four prominent trends of the contemporary scene the recovery of the real a rethinking of historical engagement a preoccupation with materiality and a turn to the planetary Readings of works by various leading figures including Dave Eggers Jonathan Franzen A M Homes Lance Olsen Richard Powers William T Vollmann and David Foster Wallace support a variety of arguments about this recent revitalization of American literature The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal Textual Practice
