

the SRS unit, including safing sensor and impact sensor (A), the cable reel (B), the driver's airbag (C), the front passenger's airbag (D), side airbags (E), side curtain airbags (L), seat belt tensioners (I), front impact sensors (J), side impact sensors (first) (F), side impact sensors (second) (K), side impact sensors (third) (Q), roll rate sensor (P) and rear safing sensor (R).

Since the driver's and front passenger's airbags use the same sensors, both normally inflate at the same time.

However, it is possible for only one airbag to inflate.

This can occur when the severity of a collision is at the margin, or threshold, that the SRS unit determines whether or not the airbags will deploy. In such cases, the seat belt will provide sufficient protection, and the supplemental protection offered by the airbag would be minimal.

Front Passenger's Weight Sensors

The front passenger's weight sensor unit (M) is under the front passenger's seat along with the weight sensors (N). The weight sensors detect the weight on the seat, and send the information to the front passenger's weight sensor unit. If the total weight is about 65 lbs (30 kg) or less, the front passenger's weight sensor unit sends a signal to the SRS unit to prevent the passenger's airbag from deploying. When the passenger's airbag is disabled, the passenger airbag cutoff indicator on the center panel comes on to alert the driver that the front passenger's airbag will not deploy in a front-end collision.
