

Chapter Summaries

One

- Roy Cleghorn notices the strange boy running along beside the school bus because Dana Matheson grabs his head from behind, presses his thumb into Roy's temple, and smashes his face against the window.
 - The running boy is not wearing shoes. Instead of boarding the bus as Roy expects, the boy turns off the sidewalk and runs across private grounds until he disappears from view.
 - No one helps Roy, the new kid, against Dana, a well-known idiot whose two main hobbies are smoking and beating up smaller kids. Dana bullies Roy by at least fifty pounds.
 - The same morning, police officer David Delinko is called to the construction site of another Mother Paster's All-American Pancake House. Leroy Gernett, the supervising engineer, introduces himself as Curly. He complains that all the survey stakes have been pulled from the ground, thrown around, and the holes filled in.
 - Returning to his patrol car, Officer Delinko steps in a hole and falls down. Curly explains that an owl about as tall as a baseball bat is in it.
 - Officer Delinko has difficulty filing his report because there has been no monetary damage and technically no vandalism. Curly says that moving the survey stakes has screwed up the whole construction schedule. Both men think the mischief is the work of kids, though they don't know why and have no suspects.
 - Officer Delinko asks about the fate of the data once the building starts. Curly sneezes, "What data?"
- Roy, who has moved to Florida from Montana and is new at Trace Middle, does not see the running boy at school.
 - Roy's father works for the government. He is good at his job, he gets promoted, and the family moves around a lot. Trace Middle is the sixth school Roy has attended. Colonel Cove is the tenth town he can remember.
 - Gernett, whose mother is a guidance counselor at Trace Middle, is a D student, goofa around in class, and is the school's king of phone talks. He talks to Roy about skateboarding.
 - Roy asks Gernett about the breakfast boy he saw, but Gernett's only explanation is that the boy is either skipping class or he is a psycho.
 - Roy suggests that maybe the boy is an outcast. Gernett laughs. Roy is thinking about a plan to find the strange boy.

Two

- The next morning on the bus, Roy sits close to the front door to watch for the boy. For three days there is no sign of the breakfast boy.
 - By Friday, Roy is sitting ten rows from the door when the running boy reappears. Roy runs to run for the door as the bus approaches the intersection, but Dana grabs him by the throat from behind and begins choking him.
 - In desperation, Roy clenches his right fist and brings it up over his shoulder as hard as he can. Dana's hands fall away from his neck.
 - Roy bolts from the bus, edging past a tall girl with curly blond hair and red-framed eyeglasses.
 - Roy exhausts himself chasing the running boy for several blocks, through a construction site, and onto a golf course. The boy disappears into the pine trees on the edge of the golf course. Roy continues his pursuit but is hit in the head with a golf ball and knocked out.
- Though he was born in Detroit, Michigan, Roy tells everyone at Trace Middle School he is from Bozeman, Montana, where his family had lived for ten years, seven months, and seven days. It is Roy's favorite of all the places his family has lived.

web 10 1 nuclear radiation nuclear reactions are very different from chemical reactions in chemical reactions atoms become more stable by participating in a transfer of electrons or by sharing electrons with other atoms in nuclear reactions it is the nucleus of the atom that gains stability by undergoing a change of some kind
