There are no other call letters of World 100.0 in service since a change in the ownership of the station under the current WISN TELEVISION ownership. The station is not a radio station, and there are no other call letters of World 100.0 in service since a change in the ownership of the station under the current WISN TELEVISION ownership. The station is not a radio station, and there are no other call letters of World 100.0 in service since a change in the ownership of the station under the current WISN TELEVISION ownership.

Conclusion: The results of this study suggest that the use of the modified 30-second sit-to-stand test is a valid and reliable measure of lower extremity strength in older adults.

Murder Stories Paul Kaplan, 2012-01-16 Murder Stories engages with the current theoretical debate in death penalty research on the role of cultural commitments to American ideologies in the retention of capital punishment The central aim of the study is to illuminate the elusive yet powerful role of ideology in legal discourses Through analyzing the content and processes of death penalty narratives this research illuminates the covert life of the American Creed a nexus of ideologies liberty egalitarianism individualism populism and laissez faire said to be unique to the United States in the law Murder Stories draws on the entire record of California death sentence resulting trials from three large and diverse California counties for the years 1996 2004 as well as interviews with 26 capital caseworkers attorneys judges and investigators from the same counties Employing the theoretical framework proposed by Ewick and Silbey 1995 to study hegemonic and subversive narratives and also the ethnographic approach advocated by Amsterdam and Hertz 1992 to study the producers and processes of constructing legal narratives this book traces the ideological content carried within the stories told by everyday practitioners of capital punishment by investigating the content process and ideological implications of these narratives The central theoretical finding is that the narratives constructed by both prosecutors and defenders tend to instantiate rather than subvert the ideological tenets of the American Creed

Truth from a Lie Margaret Key, 2011-05-05 Critics typically regard Abe Kobo 1924 93 as writing against realism due to his avant garde aesthetics that challenged the Naturalist realism dominating the literary mainstream and the Socialist realism of the orthodox Left in postwar Japan He considered his work thoroughly realist however and starting in the early 1950s in a series of avant garde art and literary groups he championed the possibility of a vital contemporary realism that challenged the reader to question the reality represented in the text through increasingly self conscious writing strategies Through a reassessment of the texts in which he worked out his theory of realism this study traces the development of his commitment to making truth from a lie to fiction drama and reportage that openly display their artifice Key argues that the reflexivity of Abe's texts which lay bare their own processes of artificial construction in order to reflect how our everyday sense of reality is constructed and maintained created a critical space for metatextual ideas that were not acknowledged by the literary establishment of his time and have yet to be recognized by critics today Undergirding his theory and practice of realism was a critique of conventional documentary and of the classic detective story The texts examined here expose the degree to which the documentarian and the detective are active fabricators of meaning rather than neutral observers of fact By paying close attention to the tension between the documentary and the fictive in Abe's works Key draws out the ethical implications of his documentary approach arguing persuasively that the documentary qualities of his writing such as its valorization of objectivity over psychologism and the realm of concrete things over abstraction are strategies for challenging the dominant assumptions about what constitutes good ethics and good art as well as the relationship between these two spheres Truth from a Lie explores the ways in which Abe put documentary and the de The New Entrepreneurs Jon Kraszewski,2011-02-01 According to the sociologist C Wright Mills in his 1951 book White Collar The American Middle Classes the new entrepreneur was a lone wolf able to succeed in post World War II corporate America by elusively meandering through various institutions During this time anthology writers such as Rod Serling Reginald Rose and Paddy Chayefsky achieved a level of creativity that has rarely been equaled on television since Yet despite their success anthology writers still needed to evade the constraints and censorship of 50s television in order to stay true to their creative powers and political visions Thus they worked as new entrepreneurs who adapted their more controversial scripts for the Hollywood Broadway and book publishing industries Even after the television networks cancelled their prestigious anthology series at the end of the 50s the most resilient writers were able to redefine what it meant to be entrepreneurs by launching cutting edge shows such as The Twilight Zone and The Defenders that are still popular today The New Entrepreneurs includes detailed textual analysis of legendary sometimes hard to find television anthology scripts that have received only cursory glances in television history until now Ebook Edition Note All images have been redacted Rob Wagner's Beverly Hills Script ,1933 *Cain v. Prepare Your Children for College and Life By Bert Lundy Learn for Excellence is a guide to the tutoring system of the same name for students in grades 1-12. The tutoring system covers Math, English, Geography, and other fundamental education tenants. The book consists of two parts. The first part explains how the tutoring system works so that parents can help their children get an excellent education despite the state of the US education system. The second part is a compilation of related newsletters which give additional insight into education and related areas. Professor Lundy has a B.A. in Mathematics, minoring in German and History from Texas A.M. and a Ph.D. in Computer Science from Georgia Tech in Atlanta. He has taught and spoken internationally from London to Japan and has extensive professional experience in computer science, software engineering, and networking. Through all of this experience, in 2010, he developed his specialized tutoring system, Learn for Excellence.

Interpretive Play Anna O. Soter, Mark Faust, Theresa M. Rogers, 2008-01-01 Social Studies for Secondary Schools Alan J. Singer, 2003-04-02. Social Studies for Secondary Schools Teaching to Learn Learning to Teach Second Edition integrates discussions of educational goals and the nature of history and social studies with practical ideas for organizing social studies curricula, units, lessons, projects, and activities. A major theme woven throughout the text is that what we choose to teach and the way we teach reflect our broader understanding of society, history, and the purposes of social studies education. Each chapter opens with a broad question about social studies education, provides many examples of lessons, including lesson ideas developed by new and experienced middle school and high school social studies teachers, features a rich variety of teaching, learning, and classroom activities designed to provoke discussion and illustrate different approaches to teaching social studies, and concludes with essays about related social studies topics. Part I focuses on philosophical issues, social studies goals and standards, and the design of social studies curricula. Part II examines and offers examples of strategies for planning units and lessons. Part III explores topics such as thematic and interdisciplinary teaching, a project approach to social studies, as well as assessing student learning and one's own performance as a teacher, and provides a guide to social studies resource materials and organizations. New in the Second Edition: Every chapter has been updated and includes a number of new lesson ideas. The lesson ideas are designed especially to help beginning teachers address learning standards, work in inclusive settings, and promote literacy and the use of technology in social studies classrooms. Sample activities developed with members of the Hofstra New Teachers Network reflect the current focus on document-based instruction and assessment and can serve as tools for assessing student learning. Increased attention is given to project-based social studies instruction and to multicultural education. Intended as a text for undergraduate and graduate preservice social studies methods courses, this text is also useful for in-service training programs as a reference for new social studies teachers and as a resource for experienced social studies educators who are engaged in rethinking their teaching practice.

Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress, 2012 The Oxford Handbook of Language and Law Peter M. Tiersma, Lawrence M. Solan, 2012-03-08. This book provides a state-of-the-art account of past and current research in the interface between linguistics and law It outlines the range of legal areas in which linguistics plays an increasing role and describes the tools and approaches used by linguists and lawyers in this vibrant new field Through a combination of overview chapters case studies and theoretical descriptions the volume addresses areas such as the history and structure of legal language its meaning and interpretation multilingualism and language rights courtroom discourse forensic identification intellectual property and linguistics and legal translation and interpretation Encyclopaedic in scope the handbook includes chapters written by experts from every contentint who are familiar with linguistic issues that arise in diverse legal systems including both civil and common law jurisdictions mixed systems like that of China and the emerging law of the European Union Redefining Trial by Media Simon Statham,2016-06-14 Redefining Trial by Media Towards a critical forensic linguistic interface applies a range of linguistic models to recast trial by media not as a sensationalist and infrequent phenomenon but as a systematic and routine process Using critical discourse analysis and cognitive linguistic models this book builds a Spectrum of Trial by Media which views juries in criminal trials as moulded by ideological media made constructions of crime The role of these media constructions is enhanced by the isolation levied on jurors by the linguistic composition of trial language and reinforced by the language strategies of legal professionals in court Critically deconstructing media portrayals of crime and forensically examining the language of criminal proceedings this book offers a redefinition of trial by media which casts the role of the press as much more prevalent in the courtroom trial than is presently appreciated Jim Crow Capital Mary-Elizabeth B. Murphy,2018-09-28 Local policy in the nation s capital has always influenced national politics During Reconstruction black Washingtonians were first to exercise their new franchise But when congressmen abolished local governance in the 1870s they set the precedent for southern disfranchisement In the aftermath of this process memories of voting and citizenship rights inspired a new generation of Washingtonians to restore local government in their city and lay the foundation for black equality across the nation And women were at the forefront of this effort Here Mary Elizabeth B Murphy tells the story of how African American women in D C transformed civil rights politics in their freedom struggles between 1920 and 1945 Even though no resident of the nation s capital could vote black women seized on their conspicuous location to testify in Congress lobby politicians and stage protests to secure racial justice both in Washington and across the nation Women crafted a broad vision of citizenship rights that put economic justice physical safety and legal equality at the forefront of their political campaigns Black women s civil rights tactics and victories in Washington D C shaped the national postwar black freedom struggle in ways that still resonate today Literacies, Learning, and the Body Grace Enriquez,Elisabeth Johnson,Stavroula Kontovourki,Christine A. Mallozzi,2015-10-16 The essays research studies and pedagogical examples in this book provide a window into the embodied dimensions of literacy and a toolbox for interpreting building on and inquiring into the range of ways people communicate and express themselves as literate beings The contributors investigate and reflect on the complexities of embodied literacies honoring literacy learners and teachers as they holistically engage with texts in complex sociopolitical historical and cultural contexts Considering these issues within a multiplicity of education spaces and literacy events inside and outside of institutional contexts the book offers a fresh lens and rhetoric with which to address literacy education policies giving readers a discursive repertoire necessary to develop and defend responsive curricula within an increasingly high stakes standardized schooling climate Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress.
