2024-04-19 Campbell Vidal and their resource contributors expand the notion of translation beyond linguistic modal and medial borders to embrace posthumanist perspectives through a holistic on theory methodology and practice from translators scholars and practitioners working in the creative and performing arts this book explores how contemporary experiential acts of interpretation mediation and negotiation can serve to bridge social and cultural discontinuities across time and space These range from ancestral past to digital present from rural to urban environments across the globe Experiential translation applies a transdisciplinary lens to problematize views of translation and untranslatability traditionally bound by structuralist frames of reference and the reserve of
