Essay #1

Score: 4.0

For as long as I can remember I've known what I wanted to do with my life. Science has always been a passion of mine, and medicine in particular has interested me for some time. Dedicating my life to improving the lives of others is very appealing to me. After Michigan State, I plan on advancing to medical school to become a physician. I believe this program will offer me valuable skills that cannot be taught in the classroom.

Throughout high school and college thus far I have taken a rigorous curriculum and maintained a 4.0 grade point average. During high school I was involved in a physician shadowing program called medical mentorship. In addition, I volunteered at Sparrow Hospital this fall in patient transport. I am very familiar with and comfortable in clinical settings. I am responsible, focused, hard working and easy to get along with. I participated in a Freshman Study Abroad program this summer and thoroughly enjoyed it. Studying in a foreign country was an experience unlike any I've had. The classes were challenging and thought provoking. The city was breathtaking and I met many friends who I still keep in touch with.

Although I plan on practicing medicine in the United States, I believe that studying the differences between the British health care system and that of the United States would benefit me a great deal in the future. It would be a valuable opportunity for me to shadow a British physician, and compare that experience to the clinical exposure I've had in the United States. By participating in this program I hope to eventually combine the best of both worlds into my medical education and eventual practice. I plan to learn valuable skills that will one day make me a better doctor.

My academic and professional goals are one as I apply to American Religious Studies Ph.D. programs. I want to study in Rome, home of the religious heart of Catholicism, to reexamine a tradition that shaped the imagination of my youth and continues to influence my approach to religious studies. I value the skills that studying in Rome would provide for looking to international religions for new ways of understanding religion in America.

In graduate school I hope to study under Dr. [name withheld], who researches Catholic mysticism at [name withheld]. My experiences near the Vatican will persist beyond next summer to influence my research on American Catholicism under [name withheld]'s mentorship.

I am seeking an undergraduate capstone experience. Before freshman year at MSU I spent thirteen months as a Congress-Bundestag ambassador in the German cities of

Imposing Harmony Geoffrey Baker, 2008-03-24 Imposing Harmony is a groundbreaking analysis of the role of music and musicians in the social and political life of colonial Cuzco Challenging musicology's cathedral centered approach to the history of music in colonial Latin America Geoffrey Baker demonstrates that rather than being dominated by the cathedral Cuzco's musical culture was remarkably decentralized He shows that institutions such as parish churches and monasteries employed indigenous professional musicians rivaling Cuzco

Cathedral in the scale and frequency of the musical performances they staged Building on recent scholarship by social historians and urban musicologists and drawing on extensive archival research Baker highlights European music as a significant vehicle for reproducing and contesting power relations in Cuzco He examines how Andean communities embraced European music creating an extraordinary cultural florescence at the same time that Spanish missionaries used the music as a mechanism of colonialization and control Uncovering a musical life of considerable and unexpected richness throughout the diocese of Cuzco Baker describes a musical culture sustained by both Hispanic institutional patrons and the upper strata of indigenous society Mastery of European music enabled elite Andeans to consolidate their position within the colonial social hierarchy Indigenous professional musicians distinguished themselves by fulfilling important functions in colonial society acting as educators religious leaders and mediators between the Catholic Church and indigenous communities The Public Value of the Humanities Jonathan Bate,2011-01-27 This book is available as open access through the Bloomsbury Open Access programme and is available on www.bloomsburycollections.com Recession is a time for asking fundamental questions about value At a time when governments are being forced to make swingeing savings in public expenditure why should they continue to invest public money funding research into ancient Greek tragedy literary value philosophical conundrums or the aesthetics of design Does such research deliver value for money and public benefit Such questions have become especially pertinent in the UK in recent years in the context of the drive by government to instrumentalize research across the disciplines and the prominence of discussions about economic impact and knowledge transfer In this book a group of distinguished humanities researchers all working in Britain but publishing research of international importance reflect on the public value of their discipline using particular research projects as case studies Their essays are passionate sometimes polemical often witty and consistently thought provoking covering a range of humanities disciplines from theology to architecture and from media studies to anthropology The Harvard Dictionary of Music Don Michael Randel,2003-11-28 This classic reference work the best one volume music dictionary available has been brought completely up to date in this new edition Combining authoritative scholarship and lucid lively prose the Fourth Edition of The Harvard Dictionary of Music is the essential guide for musicians students and everyone who appreciates music Aesthetics of Music Stephen Downes,2014-06-27 Aesthetics of Music Musicological Approaches is an anthology of fourteen essays each addressing a single key concept or pair of terms in the aesthetics of music collectively serving as an authoritative work on musical aesthetics that remains as close to the music as possible Each essay includes musical examples from works in the 18th 19th and into the 20th century Topics have been selected from amongst widely recognised central issues in musical aesthetics as well as those that have been somewhat neglected to create a collection that covers a distinctive range of ideas All essays cover historical origins sources and developments of the chosen idea survey important musicological approaches and offer new critical angles or musical case studies in interpretation
