Juncos and Elvire de Paiva e Pona are to be congratulated for writing this trailblazing book Stephen Palmer PhD Professor of Practice at the Wales Academy for Professional Practice and Applied Research University of Wales Trinity Saint David UK This phenomenal resource is written with an acute awareness of musicians as students performers and teachers The authors integration and application of their expertise in performance psychology and education enables an explanation of the theory and practice of ACT in a thorough and accessible way Extensive exercises and examples are clearly formulated to entice musicians to immediately and compassionately incorporate the strategies into their practice As a consulting psychologist university lecturer and researcher specialising in music performance anxiety I have seen firsthand how the material contained in this book has enabled students and patients to reach new levels of their potential This book will be my go to resource for using ACT to help musicians at all levels and stages I encourage you to make it yours too Margaret Osborne PhD Registered Psychologist Senior Lecturer in Psychology and Music University of Melbourne Australia Conductors often hit a wall when trying to understand how musicians cope with personal constraints This happens because they fail to address the underlying physical and psychological issues that manifest in musicians Both conductors and musicians lack the knowledge of the tools needed to cope with the pressure of musical performance This magnificent book brings thorough insight and a valuable path to finally create a healthy and productive environment to make music in small or large ensembles This process not only helps single performers but also conductors who need to be aware of their fellow musicians performance struggles Bravo Dr Juncos and Ms De Paiva e Pona Paulo Vassalo Lourenco DMA Conductor Head of Choral Conducting Program Escola Superior de Musica de Lisboa Portugal It has always struck me as odd that of the thousands of hours that we in the performing arts devote to cultivating our craft so few of those are dedicated to perhaps the most essential skill of all how to execute that craft under pressure As a longtime sufferer of MPA finally a name for this thing that I ve been enduring for so long nothing was more frustrating to me than not being able to demonstrate on stage that which I was fully capable of in the practice room as a result of an unlucky biochemical response to stress I felt I simply could not control But of course therein lies the essential paradox clarified so eloquently and so helpfully in this wonderful book Years of trying to control my anxiety by denying it fighting it faking it til I made it except I never quite did in effect made my anxiety far worse Applying some of the basic tenets of ACT in recent years has shown me that the somewhat counterintuitive process of accepting and acknowledging my fears and mindfully attending to them has yielded more successful and more enjoyable performances Having recently pivoted to the role of educator I am so grateful to be able to add this comprehensive evidence based and ever accessible resource to my pedagogical toolkit It is a wonderful feeling to know that I will be able to offer hope to a new generation of performers who may in the past have felt doomed to a lifetime of subpar performances on account of anxiety Thank you Dr Juncos Ms De Paiva e Pona and as we say in the opera world Bravissimo Kiera Duffy MM Soprano Head of Undergraduate Voice Studies University of Notre Dame South Bend IN It is rare to find decent research that merges

Psychology and Musical performance As a professional singer with a degree in Psychology I found ACT for Musicians very enlightening in this field that still holds so many questions Fascinating practical and with an empirical curiosity that approaches a much needed field of research I highly recommend any performer to read it and benefit from the many tools to help navigate the mind an ingredient so vital and yet neglected to a successful music performance Nuno Queimado BA Professional Actor and Singer based in London West End credits include Hamilton Jesus Christ Superstar and From Here to Eternity The effectiveness of previously available music performance anxiety treatments was always questionable in my experience A shift in focus from intervention to therapy based on the ideas of acceptance and commitment is the way forward not only for being an approach for addressing performance anxiety in conceptual and practical terms but also for becoming a healthier more complete individual This shift is supported by the data presented where we see once anxious shaken musicians with nowhere to turn now being able to face their fears and achieve success In my forty years of performance experience I ve utilized various methods of reducing performance anxiety mostly by trying to suppress those uncomfortable feelings but this book is rooted in compassion and acceptance and in the understanding of the psychological complexities involved in the world of the performing arts It also provides practical exercises and solutions and is without a doubt a game changer Any musician that reads it I have no doubt will agree but I would go as far as to say that any musician coach or professor of music should read this book because philosophically conceptually and statistically there is no doubt it can change the struggles of music performance for the better Pablo Cohen DMA Classical Guitarist Associate Professor of Music of Latin America Classical Guitar Whalen Center for Music Ithaca College Ithaca NY First Language Lessons Level 4 Jessie Wise, Sara Buffington, 2008-12-22 A simple to use scripted guide to grammar and composition that makes successful teaching easy for both parents and students This volume the Level 4 Instructor Guide in the complete elementary grammar series uses classical techniques of memorization dictation and narration to develop your child s language ability in the important foundational years of language study The text covers a full range of grammar topics including parts of speech punctuation sentence diagrams and skills in beginning writing and storytelling Optional end units provide practice in dictionary use and letter writing Designed to follow Levels 1-3 the Level 4 Instructor Guide can also be used as a first grammar text for older students A Level 4 Student Workbook is available separately with worksheet and activities Grade Recommendation Grades 4-5 The Musician's Way : A Guide to Practice, Performance, and Wellness Gerald Klickstein, 2009-08-06 In The Musician's Way veteran performer and educator Gerald Klickstein combines the latest research with his 30 years of professional experience to provide aspiring musicians with a roadmap to artistic excellence Part I Artful Practice describes strategies to interpret and memorize compositions fuel motivation collaborate and more Part II Fearless Performance lifts the lid on the hidden causes of nervousness and shows how musicians can become confident performers Part III Lifelong Creativity surveys tactics to prevent music related injuries and equips musicians to tap their own innate
