The Rabbit Ate My Homework (The Rabbit Ate My ... Book 1) Rachel Elizabeth Cole, 2014-09-02 An inviting story that's hard to put down. It's hilarious, it's realistic, it's involving. What more could one ask for? D Donovan eBook Reviewer Midwest Book Review. Oh, what a fun romp of a story this is. A must-have for anyone with children in the family. Reviewed By Kathryn Bennett for Readers Favorite. A humorous story packed full of sibling love and every-day craziness. Kids 8 will have no trouble understanding Drew and will laugh and cringe with him as he battles life, school, and a cute rabbit. Bookworm for Kids. If you like animals, you'll like this. She reads to live. Eleven-year-old Drew Montgomery has not, does not, and will not ever want a stupid old rabbit. All they do is sit in their cages, eat carrots, and poop. Then his annoying little sister blackmails him into hiding a bunny in his closet. She knows what really happened to his stolen bike, and she's threatening to tell. Now Drew's in a real jam. If his No-pets parents find the rabbit, or worse, his sister blabs the truth, he'll be grounded till grade seven for sure. And if that's not enough trouble, two girls at school drag him into a prank war that goes from bad to worse, and it's all the rabbit's fault. Plus the weirdest girl in his class wants to be his science partner. If she tells him she wants to be his girlfriend, he just knows he's gonna die. Drew must find a way to outwit the mean girls, wiggle out of the blackmail deal, and get rid of the rabbit before it destroys his bedroom and his life. Preteen humorous middle-grade novel eBook for boys and girls, children's funny pet bunny rabbit chapter book for kids, baby animal, first pets, rescue tales, sixth-grade elementary school bullies, pranks, trouble, humor, story, hilarious, contemporary fiction for ages 9-12, siblings, family, friendship, values. The Rabbit Ate My Series

My Book of Writing Skills Chandan Sengupta, 2024-07-10 This workbook is prepared to equip fellow aspirants of Continuing Education by different possible means. Elders often instruct us to say pleasant words for implying positive impressions in the minds of listeners. We often try to speak on any assigned topic in public places. That time we often forget about the mind-set of listeners and their baselines of knowledge. These factors often determine their levels of participation in the assembly. If we want people to listen to us, then we also make ourselves fit for gaining enough capabilities of listening to others. Listening and being listened to will create a vibrant bond of human relationships through which knowledge starts flowing. This collection will enable learners and fellow aspirants to reallocate their skills and competences which enable them to gain some higher levels of confidence. Waves of thought and admiration are nothing but a band of participatory bliss which ensures our process of socialisation. It also enhances the participatory skill of the individual taking part in the society. We will sum up our approach with an aspiration of offering the fellow reader a scope of personal advancement through sharing some of the golden moments and collectibles from the treasure of olden times. We also offer a band of such collections for the purpose of providing background study materials meant for skill acquisition in terms of language. It is true that we all rely upon elders for gaining basic facilities required for accelerating our pace of learning. In certain contexts, we expect some more resources and additional instruments for gaining skills of our desired types. We also expect participation of people of the surrounding

This collection has incorporated different titles with an objective of providing some timely relevant information as well as creative efforts of various types These works are of special types because of the active involvements of the fellow aspirants These works must inspire readers and make them positively motivated to deliver their efforts efficiently in due course of time for gaining desired skills We also expect active participation of fellow parents in making these efforts more result oriented

Someone Shot My Book Julie Carr, 2018-02-02 Approaching the practices of reading and writing from a feminist perspective Julie Carr asks vital ethical questions about the role of poetry and of art in general in a violent culture. She addresses issues such as the art of listening the body and the avant garde gun violence police brutality reading and protest and feminist responses to war in essays that are lucid inventive and informed by a life lived with poetry. Essays on poets Lorine Niedecker Jean Valentine Anne Carson Lyn Hejinian and Lisa Robertson detail some of the political emotional and spiritual work of these forerunners. A former dancer Carr also takes up question of text dance performance and race in an essay on the work of choreographer writer and visual artist Ralph Lemon and poet Fred Moten. Carr's essays push past familiar boundaries between the personal confessional and experimental conceptual strains in American poetry. Pressing philosophical inquiries into the nature of gender motherhood fear the body and violence up against readings of twentieth and twenty first century poets she asks us to consider the political and affective work of poetry in a range of contexts. Carr reports on her own practices examining her concerns for research and narrative against her investment in lyric as well as her history as a dancer and her work as curator and publisher. Carr's breadth of inquiry moves well beyond the page yet remains grounded in languages possibilities

My Book of Ruth Ruth Lehrer, 2010-03-05 Ruth Lehrer's memoir in thirty six essays is a compelling contemplation about her life as a secular American Jewish woman. With humor and passion she tells of her family's arrival in America in 1920 her Yiddishe Mama Catskill vacations Bar Mitzvahs Christmas trees war and peace religion God and politics. She delights in books theatre and film with Jewish content and laughs loudest at jokes told in Yiddish. When she hears of a crime she prays that the perpetrator is not Jewish. A Judaica gift shop is her favorite place to browse. Religion lite may be hypocritical Ruth writes but what we need to be worried about is religion heavy. She still wears her 1960s pendant trumpeting War is not healthy for children and other living things. Jewish Mother jokes a sure fire winner in a comedians arsenal are stereotypical and exaggerated. But for her they contain more than a nugget of truth. Her big regret is not speaking Yiddish with her sons
