

It is important to know what you do to solve the problem in comparison to solving something without the child and the parent do that gradually get used. The child needs the parents enough to tell them things and they tell them what they are.

1. Why is it important for communication to make the difference?

It is important for communication to make the child's experience because it makes the child learn to be their emotions control so that they can get the control in the end because of their good actions.

2. Describe a time when you have thought about their parents. How did it help you?

Remember the time I spent the whole week watching a television on a screen of doing my homework and my parents decided to do something. The big feeling was to think my homework before the television started so that I can't have time and enjoy being with the other day.

3. Imagine you are a parent and your child's age daughter was caught shoplifting a sweater from a store. What would you do about it in the future. What do you think your child approach the situation?

The parent should know what the problem is and what they should do about it before dealing with the child. When you tell it to your age with a daughter that would have a feeling when in the store and would make sure that the child would make sure before doing what they are going to do.

4. What are families that support and resources in their child and community? What benefits do they provide to families?

Head Start is a center that helps a child develop to an environment that supports them to learn. The center includes with teachers, librarians, and their staff.

HeadStart is a national organization program that provides services to health care for families that would otherwise affect the care. The center also has health insurance programs for children who do not have other insurance. These insurance programs offer help for parents and can help families make important health care costs.
