Gary Soto Desire Short Story:

A Study Guide for Gary Soto's "Mother and Daughter" Gale, Cengage, 2018-09-13 A Study Guide for Gary Soto's Mother and Daughter excerpted from Gale's acclaimed Short Stories for Students This concise study guide includes plot summary character analysis author biography study questions historical context suggestions for further reading and much more For any literature project trust Short Stories for Students for all of your research needs The Power of Experience Jeremy Janes, 2007 What is the value of a life deeply lived Can fragments from the past help you navigate the future What good is wisdom in a world bewitched by ephemera Some of our best writers over 50 tackle these and other questions in this honest hard hitting collection about the search for meaning in the second half of life In moving works of self discovery they illuminate the fine art of growing up and the power of experience to transform your life Publisher website May 2008

Learning to Enjoy Literature Thomas M. McCann, John V. Knapp, 2021-07-01 Students will not become enthusiastic readers of literature from a teacher simply assigning reading tasks and assessing the completion of the tasks especially when the assessment takes the form of threatened quizzes Instead as this book shows teachers have an obligation to reveal to learners the procedures that skilled readers follow as they work with and enjoy literature and a further obligation to help learners to recognize some value in tackling complex works of literature 12 Multicultural Novels Monica Wood, 1997 Incorporate multicultural literature easily into your English program Vivid stories that captivate the imagination and expand cultural understanding offer effective teaching strategies This literature guide gives you effective teaching strategies and complete material for 12 novels by writers from diverse cultures and ethnic backgrounds The novels are Ellen Foster Reservation Blues Shizuko's Daughter The House on Mango Street Somewhere in the Darkness Make Lemonade Roll of Thunder Hear My Cry MAUS A Survivor's Tale The Long Season of Rain Jesse Allegra Maud Goldman and The Dreams of Mairhe Mehan Included for each novel are chapter by chapter synopses teaching notes discussion questions and suggested responses and a reading quiz and answer key Rereading America Gary Colombo, Robert Cullen, Bonnie Lisle, 2016-04-08 Rereading America remains the most widely adopted book of its kind because it works instructors tell us time and again that they've watched their students grow as critical thinkers and writers as they grapple with cross curricular readings that not only engage them but also challenge them to reexamine deeply held cultural assumptions such as viewing success solely as the result of hard work Extensive apparatus offers students a proven framework for revisiting revising or defending those assumptions as students probe the myths underlying them Rereading America has stayed at the forefront of American culture contending with cultural myths as they persist morph and develop anew The tenth edition developed with extensive input from users features a refreshed collection of readings with a new chapter that introduces students to one of the most pervasive myths of our time technological innovation fosters a more equal society Also in response to instructors requests for more writing instruction there are now more questions that help students apply to their own writing the strategies used in the readings      Cooler Than Fiction Jill S. Jarrell, Tara C. Cannon, 2014-01-10 Designed for public librarians school media specialists teachers and anyone with an interest in supporting teen literacy this book features 133 nonfiction booktalks to use with both voracious and reluctant teen readers These booktalks cover a wide and varied range of nonfiction genres including science nature history biography graphic novels true crime art and much more Each includes a set of discussion questions and sample project ideas which could be easily expanded into a classroom lesson plan or full library program Also included are several guidelines for classroom integration tips for making booktalks more interactive and interesting and selections for further reading      Magill's Survey of American Literature Frank Northen Magill, 1991 This set presents 190 American writers for the 17th to the late 20th century      Recommended Literature California. Survival! Donna E. Alvermann, 1995      The Cambridge Companion to Latina/o American Literature John Morán González, 2016-06-13 The Cambridge Companion to Latina o American Literature provides a thorough yet accessible overview of a literary phenomenon that has been rapidly globalizing over the past two decades It takes an innovative approach that underscores the importance of understanding Latina o literature not merely as an ethnic phenomenon in the United States but more broadly as a crucial element of a trans American literary imagination Leading scholars in the field present critical analyses of key texts authors themes and contexts from the early nineteenth century to the present They engage with the dynamics of migration linguistic and cultural translation and the uneven distribution of resources across the Americas that characterize Latina o literature This Companion will be an invaluable resource introducing undergraduate and graduate students to the complexities of the field      Battlegrounds and Crossroads Maria Antònia Oliver-Rotger, 2003-01-01 Of interest to informed readers responsive to combined textual and cultural approaches to Chicano a literature and literature in general Battleground and Crossroads weaves in various critical and theoretical threads to inquire into the relationship between intimate and public spaces in Chicana literature Without claiming the borderlands as exclusive of the Chicana o imagination this book acknowledges the importance of this metaphor for bringing to view a more intercultural United States allowing it to become inflected with the particularity of each text The analyses of Chicana fiction drama and autobiography explore the construction of identity through the representation of social space and the transformation of literary space For discussion of a diacritical territory this volume draws on a interdisciplinary practice that facilitates the journey from the most intimate spaces to the most public spaces of modernity so that the aesthetic text yields its knowledge of the contingent historical circumstances of its production in material and existential terms The apparent regionalism and localism of this literature is nothing but a reflection of the relationship between the local and the global the private and the public the personal and the political the aesthetic and the ideological the subversive and the mainstream Each text stands by itself while it also reaches out to the sociopolitical imaginary for interpretation through an interdisciplinary methodology that is indispensable to do justice to a politicized aesthetics      Library Media Connection , 1994      Children's Books and Their

Creators Anita Silvey, 1995 Unique in its coverage of contemporary American children's literature this timely single volume reference covers the books our children are or should be reading now from board books to young adult novels Enriched with dozens of color illustrations and the voices of authors and illustrators themselves it is a cornucopia of delight 23 color 153 b w illustrations

Modern American Literature: P-Z Joann Cerrito, Laurie DiMauro, 1999 Presents critical excerpts and analyses from a variety of sources that combine to provide overviews of the work of 138 of the most significant authors of the modern period in American literature arranged alphabetically with bibliographies

What Do I Read Next? Rafaela Castro, 1997 Surveys works for children and adults

Neoliberalism, Pedagogy and Human Development Michalis Kontopodis, 2012-10-12 In most Western developed countries adult life is increasingly organized on the basis of short term work contracts and reduced social security funds In this context it seems that producing efficient job seekers and employees becomes the main aim of educational programs for the next generation Through case studies of young people from urban and countryside marginalized populations in Germany USA and Brazil this book investigates emerging educational practices and takes a critical stance towards what can be seen as neoliberal educational politics It investigates how mediating devices such as CVs school reports school files photos and narratives shape the ways in which those marginalized students reflect about their past as well as imagine their future By building on process philosophy and time theory post structuralism as well as on Vygotsky's psychological theory the analysis differentiates between two discrete modes of human development development of concrete skills potential development and development of new societal relations virtual development which is at the same time individual and collective The book outlines an innovative relational account of learning and human development which can prove of particular importance for the education of marginalized students in today's globalized world

Aztlán and Viet Nam George Mariscal, 1999-01-30 Showcasing over sixty short stories poems speeches and articles Aztlán and Viet Nam is the first anthology of Mexican American writings about the U S war in Southeast Asia The words are startlingly frank moving and immensely powerful as they call to our attention an important and neglected part of U S history Gathered from many little known sources the works reflect both the soldiers experience and the antiwar movement at home Taken together they illustrate the contradictions faced by the traditionally patriotic Mexican American community and show us the war and the grassroots opposition to it from a new perspective one that goes beyond the familiar dichotomy of black and white America George Mariscal offers critical introductions and provides historical background by identifying specific issues which have not been widely discussed in relation to the war noting for example the potential for Chicano soldiers to recognize their own ethnic and class identities in those of the Vietnamese people Drawing upon interviews with key participants in the National Chicano Moratorium Committee Mariscal analyzes the antiwar movement the Catholic Church traditional Mexican American groups and an emerging feminist consciousness among Chicanas Also included are personal accounts Norma Elia Cant's remembrance of her brother who died in combat Barbara Renaud Gonzales evocative poem about Chicanas on the homefront Alberto Rosas and Naomi Helena Quironez's moving poetry about the Wall and the recollections of Abelardo Delgado and others on the August 29 1970 Moratorium Buddhism and American Cinema John Whalen-Bridge, Gary Storhoff, 2014-07-31 In 1989 the same year the Dalai Lama was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize a decade long boom of films dedicated to Buddhist people history and culture began Offering the first scholarly treatment of Buddhism and cinema the editors advise that there are two kinds of Buddhist film those that are about Buddhists and those that are not Focusing on contemporary American offerings the contributors extend a two pronged approach discussing how Buddhism has been captured by directors and presenting Buddhist oriented critiques of the worlds represented in films that would seem to have no connection with Buddhism Films discussed range from those set in Tibet such as Kundun and Lost Horizon to those set well outside of any Buddhist milieu such as Groundhog Day and The Matrix The contributors explain the Buddhist theoretical concepts that emerge in these works including karma the bardo and reincarnation and consider them in relation to interpretive strategies that include feminism postcolonialism and contemplative psychological approaches The Essential Guide to Children's Books and Their Creators , Upon publication Anita Silvey's comprehensive survey of contemporary children's literature Children's Books and Their Creators garnered unanimous praise from librarians educators and specialists interested in the world of writing for children Now The Essential Guide to Children's Books and Their Creators assembles the best of that volume in one handy affordable reference geared specifically to parents educators and students This new volume introduces readers to the wealth of children's literature by focusing on the essentials the best books for children the ones that inform impress and most important excite young readers Updated to include newcomers such as J K Rowling and Lemony Snicket and to cover the very latest on publishing and educational trends this edition features more than 475 entries on the best loved children's authors and illustrators numerous essays on social and historical issues thirty personal glimpses into craft by well known writers illustrators and critics and invaluable reading lists by category The Essential Guide to Children's Books and Their Creators summarizes the canon of contemporary children's literature in a practical guide essential for anyone choosing a book for or working with children
