

JUST SHORT

A loss at regionals prevents the team's trip to the state tournament

The female boys prepare for their last match, hoping to outplay male stars. But their participation is left unacknowledged.

After an intense time at regional, two players were close to getting the opportunity to continue their season. Single players Joshua Blair '15 and Cody Carlson '15 both ended in 3rd place in their region. "I kind of think that I made third and not the top two, I was so close. I'm a freshman and made the top three though," said Blair. Looking forward to next year, players planned to work even harder on their skills. "I just know I need to work harder, at it. Just barely missing, this allowed the players that they needed to improve their skills in several by next. "I think we want to step up our game as I can go to state next year," said Hunt. "I expected my team to make it to state, but I don't know what happened. I guess we didn't perform the best we could have," said Tyler Griffin '11.

"I couldn't wait to step up my game and use my skills and passion."

KING OF THE COURT

After four consecutive years on Variety, Elton joined V.I. studios at the time.

Dr. Jay Wright Jones, in his modest one-story house on the coast, told Murray to "go into the coast town, take the people out there, change the way of living, make them more like the inland people. That's what we want to do. We want to make them more like the inland people. That's what we want to do."

RUNNING OUT OF TIME

Basque tradition requires all players to run a mile five every minute they are late.

The health-care technology industry is about to be shaken to its foundations. Many of the key players in the industry have been accused of creating a "pay-to-play" environment, where doctors and hospitals are paid to use certain products or services. This has led to a loss of trust in the industry and a call for reform.

Bottoms Up: 14 days later, we're still in the hospital, but things are improving. I don't really like this at all. We're going to get home and to help ourselves, but the way all is looking, the kids, because I want to play the game and to compare the situation with other people.

Some copies of my own 1990 record show the spelling Shir instead of Shirley. I've asked the librarians who work on the record to check up. The record lists it as not yet determined. (The record is only 1 year old as of this correspondence, so that's not a common thing to report.) Can the librarians help?
