Green,2024-03-29 This book is the first introduction to Western art that not only considers how choice of materials can impact form but also how objects in different media can alter in appearance over time and the role of conservators in the preservation of our cultural heritage The first four chapters cover wall and easel paintings sculpture drawings and prints from the late Middle Ages to the present day They examine with numerous examples how these works have been produced how they might have been transformed and how efforts regarding their preservation can sometimes be misleading or result in controversy The final two chapters look at how photography new techniques and modern materials prompted innovative ways of creating art in the twentieth century and how the rapid expansion of technology in the twenty first century has led to a revolution in how artworks are constructed and seen generating specific challenges for collectors curators and conservators alike This book is primarily directed at undergraduates interested in art history museum studies and conservation but will also be of interest to a more general non specialist audience

Architecture in Detail II Graham Bizley, 2010-08-20 Following on from Graham Bizley's successful Architecture in Detail Architecture in Detail II presents 40 case studies of detailing on recent construction projects. Over 150 full colour drawings and photos provide a reference compendium for the professional architect seeking detailing inspiration. Originally featured in Building Design's In Detail magazine, the included projects represent some of the most interesting and innovative techniques in recent architecture. Graham Bizley's beautifully presented detail drawings allow the architect to easily see how ideas and techniques can be applied to other projects. The book is organised by building type for quick and easy reference.

Fixed Beth Goobie, 2005-03-01 Nellie Joanne Kinnan is an Advanced Cadet in the Black Core Program at the Detta training center. Weapons and violence are second nature to this twelve year old, but she is never exactly sure what it is she is being trained for. Nellie is a dedicated and skilled cadet. She knows she wants to serve the Goddess and the Empire. But there is so much that she doesn't understand. When a weapons training session brings her face to face with her twin, Nellie's world is thrown into turmoil. Suddenly she questions her commitment to the violence that has dominated her young life. As she slowly learns to trust her rebellious twin, she comes to realize that much of what she has been taught about life in both the Interior and the Outbacks is not true. Faced with this reality, Nellie must find new weapons and new strength in her struggle to continue to serve the Goddess.
