Translingual Creative Writing Theory, Practice, and Pedagogy

Jennifer Quist,2025-05-15 In a challenge to monolingual Anglophone dominated creative writing workshops this book explores why and how students multilingual backgrounds and lack of fluency with the English language can emerge as assets rather than impediments to artistry and creativity Grounded in the Chinese tradition of Daoism as an ongoing discourse this exploration uses rigorous academic readings of the philosophical text the Zhuangzi as an analytical framework and takes a translingual approach to writing where translation and composition intersect inscribing one language upon another within a single text With concepts that resist expression such as inspiration uncertainty non knowing spontaneity unity forgetting the self and the perfection behind the imperfection of language Jennifer Quist demonstrates how Daoism s theories and metalanguage can re imagine creative writing education whilst de naturalizing the authority of English and Euro American literary traditions With analytical lenses derived from East Asia given context through translations of Chinese educators primary accounts of the history and theory of postsecondary creative writing education in 21st century China Quist develops a method for examining the practices of exemplary translingual writers from China Japan and their diasporas Featuring translingual writing prompts and practices for individual or classroom use by students at all levels of multilingualism Translingual Creative Writing Theory Practice and Pedagogy opens up the current workshop model and discloses the possibilities of linguistic transcendence for instructors and students With writing strategies based in cross cultural collaboration and balanced with de Anglicization of creative writing pedagogy this book calls to rework the structures methods and metaphors of the workshop and presents ideas for more collaborative collective equitable diverse and inclusive programs

Dictionary of National Biography Leslie Stephen,Sir Leslie Stephen,Sir Sidney Lee,1896 DICTIONARY OF NATIONAL BIOGRAPHY ,1896 The Banner of Israel ,1878 The Pushing-Hands of Translation and its Theory Douglas Robinson,2016-05-12 This book presents an East West dialogue of leading translation scholars responding to and developing Martha Cheung s pushing hands method of translation studies Pushing hands was an idea Martha began exploring in the last four years of her life and only had time to publish at article length in 2012 The concept of pushing hands

suggests a promising line of inquiry into the problem of conflict in translation Pushing hands opens a new vista for translation scholars to understand and explain how to develop an awareness of non confrontational alternative ways to handle translation problems or problems related to translation activities that are likely to give rise to tension and conflict The book is a timely contribution to celebrate Martha s work and also to move the conversation forward Despite being somewhat tentative and experimental it probes into how to enable and develop dynamic interaction between and reciprocal determinism of different hands involved in the process of translation Mastering Writing at Greater Depth Adam Bushnell,Angela Gill,David Waugh,Rob Smith,2020-02-29 How do teachers identify the potential for greater depth writing and encourage children to meet their full potential This book was created by people who are not only passionate about primary education but who are also leading experts in their own particular areas They have made use of their wide experience to offer practical guidance on greater depth writing while underpinning this with theoretical understanding We hope that reading this book helps you to reflect on what greater depth writing looks like and how you can encourage children to write at greater depth You will find many suggestions for teaching lessons that encourage children to write at greater depth underpinned by theory
