

Дома душно. Давит душу.
Вся печаль уже наружу.
Сколько ж, Боже, нам послушно
По домам сидеть?..

...

Дома душно. Давят слёзы.
Где былых оттенков грезы?
Где конец больной тревоги
Этих мрачных дней?

...

Дома душно. Все постыло.
За окном опять уныло.
За окном встаёт и будит
Старый новый день.

Contemplating Shostakovich: Life, Music and Film Andrew Kirkman, 2016-05-13 Contemplating Shostakovich marks an important new stage in the understanding of Shostakovich and his working environment. Each chapter covers aspects of the composer's output in the context of his life and cultural milieu. The contributions uncover outside stimuli behind Shostakovich's works, allowing the reader to perceive the motivations behind his artistic choices. At the same time, the nature of those choices offers insights into the workings of the larger world, cultural, social, political, that he inhabited. Thus, his often ostensibly quirky choices are revealed as responses by turns sentimental, moving, sardonic, and angry to the particular conditions with all their absurdities and contradictions that he had to negotiate. Here we see the composer emerging from the role of tortured loner of older narratives into that of the gregarious and engaged member of his society that for better and worse characterized the everyday reality of his life. This invaluable collection offers remarkable new insight in both depth and range into the nature of Shostakovich's working circumstances and of his response to them. The collection contains the seeds for a wide range of new directions in the study of Shostakovich's works and the larger contexts of their creation and reception.

The Life and the Art Keith Carabine,2022-05-20 The Life and the Art A Study of Conrad s Under Western Eyes has a twofold origin Over the past ten years as an associate editor of the prospective Cambridge Edition of Under Western Eyes the author Keith Carabine has worked on the genesis and composition of the novel in its several versions and on its literary ideological social and historical contexts At the same time during these years he has taught seminar courses on Conrad for undergraduates and on Conrad and Dostoevsky for postgraduates This interpenetration of teaching and research constantly reminded the author that his many hours devoted to textual minutiae and manuscript variations or to a study of Conrad s Polish background should result not only in a scholarly edition of the novel in a book that will demonstrate the ways in which Conrad s life and his protracted uncertain composition of the Under Western Eyes enrich his art and the title of this book deliberately invokes Conrad s belief in the inseparability of the art and the life This study s six chapters concentrate in different ways and with differing emphases on the complex inter relations between the art and the life on the intersections between Conrad s personal preoccupations fictional aesthetic and working practices with regard to what he described as without doubt the most deeply meditated novel that came from under my pen

Isotope Titles,1970-05 The Political Body Andrea Giunta,2023-03-28 This book discusses how some works of art produced in Latin America in the sixties seventies and eighties forged a different understanding of the female body understood as space for the expression of a dissident subjectivity in relation to socially normalized places Representations of art and of feminist activism interrogated the disciplining of the female body that entails as well the disciplining of the male body Before a history of highly regulated artistic representations regardless of the occasional exceptions a historian might point out images erupted that questioned the social and institutional naturalization of the feminine and the masculine

Emotional Bridges to

Puerto Rico Elizabeth M. Aranda, 2007 Emotional Bridges to Puerto Rico is about Puerto Ricans' struggles of incorporation into U.S. society and the conditions under which members of the Puerto Rican middle class move back and forth between the mainland and island. The book illustrates how structures of inequality Gestures of Ethical Life David Michael Kleinberg-Levin, 2005 For Greek antiquity the question of right or fitting measure constituted the very heart of both ethics and politics. But can the Good of the ethical life and the Justice of the political be reduced to measurement and calculation? If they are matters of measure, are they not also absolutely immeasurable? In critical dialogue with texts by Plato, Herder, Rilke, Heidegger, Benjamin, Adorno, Marx, Merleau-Ponty, Levinas, and Levi, the author argues that the question of measure has become ever more urgent in the context of a modernity pressured by the conditions of a technological economy and a relativism that threatens to destroy a vital sense of moral responsibility and the commitment to justice that underlies the possibility of freedom. Conceived as a task for the metaphysics of memory, this book explores the normative problematic of measure, bringing its deeply buried redemptive promise to appearance in our gestures, uses, and abuses of the hands, the dialectic of tact, and the manners of social existence Our South African Empire William Henry Parr Greswell, 1885

Teaching the Eighteenth Century Now Kate Parker, Miriam L. Wallace, 2024 Teacher-scholars of the long eighteenth century consider teaching in this historical moment. Essays link eighteenth-century content with pedagogical approaches that engage contemporary students as developing scholars. Authors reflect on what it is that we do when we teach how our pedagogies can be more meaningful, more impactful, and more relevant. Published by Bucknell University Press. Distributed worldwide by Rutgers University Press In Defiance of History Victoria Leonard, 2022-02-16 This volume offers a counterbalance to the dismissal that Orosius's Histories Against the Pagans has suffered in most recent criticism. Orosius is traditionally considered to be a mediocre scholar and an essentially worthless historian. This book takes his literary endeavour seriously, recognizing the unique contribution the Histories made at a crucial moment of debate and uncertainty where the present was shaped by restructuring the past. The significance of the Histories is recognised intrinsically rather than only in comparison with other texts and authors, principally Augustine of Hippo, Orosius's mentor. The approach of the book is historiographical, exploring the form, purpose, and meaning of the Histories. The themes of divine providence, monotheism, and imperial authority are examined, and the subjects of war and the sack of Rome receive extended analysis. The book foregrounds Orosius's significant historiographical innovations that are seldom explored, such as the subversion of imperial history within a Christian spectrum in the synchronization of the emperor Augustus and Christ. Each chapter contributes to the progression of knowledge about Orosius's Histories and the wider literary and historiographical culture of disruption that characterised the late fourth and early fifth centuries CE The Man Who Loved Dogs Leonardo Padura, 2014-01-28 Cuban writer Iván Cordero meets a mysterious foreigner on a Havana Beach who is always in the company of two Russian wolfhounds. Ivan quickly names him the man who loves dogs. The man eventually confesses that he is the man who murdered Leon Trotsky in Mexico Youth Movements and Elections in Eastern Europe Olena Nikolayenko, 2017-10-12 At the turn of the twenty first century a tide of nonviolent youth movements swept across Eastern Europe Young people demanded political change in repressive political regimes that emerged since the collapse of communism The Serbian social movement Otpor Resistance played a vital role in bringing down Slobodan Milosevic in 2000 Inspired by Otpor s example similar challenger organizations were formed in Azerbaijan Belarus Georgia and Ukraine The youth movements however differed in the extent to which they could mobilize citizens against the authoritarian governments on the eve of national elections This book argues that the movement s tactics and state countermoves explain in no small degree divergent social movement outcomes Using data from semi structured interviews with former movement participants public opinion polls government publications non governmental organization NGO reports and newspaper articles the book traces state movement interactions in five post communist societies Azerbaijan Belarus Georgia Serbia and Ukraine
