François-Xavier de Vaujany, Jeremy Aroles, Mar Pérezts, 2023 Phenomenologies are a major stream of philosophy Our aim with this handbook is to explore critically and reflexively the plurality of phenomenologies and their becoming in the context of Management and Organization Studies We detail in the introduction the genealogy of the phenomenological moment and make a distinction between four streams of phenomenologies phenomenology as a phenomenological moment post phenomenologies anti phenomenologies and non phenomenologies Beyond many clichés about phenomenologies we argue that phenomenologies cultivate critical perspectives ontologies and even for some of them metaphysics that make them particularly interwoven with other philosophical traditions We draw implications for Management and Organization Studies as a field Poetics of Imagining Richard Kearney, 2019-07-31 No detailed description available for Poetics of Imagining

Writing the History of the Mind Cristina Chimisso, 2016-02-11 For much of the twentieth century French intellectual life was dominated by theoreticians and historians of mentality Traditionally the study of the mind and of its limits and capabilities was the domain of philosophy however in the first decades of the twentieth century practitioners of the emergent human and social sciences were increasingly competing with philosophers in this field ethnologists sociologists psychologists and historians of science were all claiming to study how people think Scholars including Gaston Bachelard Georges Canguilhem Léon Brunschvicg Lucien Lévy-Bruhl Lucien Febvre Abel Rey Alexandre Koyré and Hélène Metzger were all investigating the mind historically and participating in shared research projects Yet as they have since been appropriated by the different disciplines literature on their findings has so far failed to recognise the connections between their research and their importance in intellectual history In this exemplary book Cristina Chimisso reconstructs the world of these intellectuals and the key debates in the philosophy of mind particularly between those who studied specific mentalities by employing prevalently historical and philological methods and those who thought it possible to write a history of the mind outlining the evolution of ways of thinking that had produced the modern mentality Dr Chimisso situates the key French scholars in their historical context and shows how their ideas and agendas were indissolubly linked with their social and institutional positions such as their political and religious allegiances their status in academia and their familial situation The author employs a vast range of original research using philosophical and scientific texts as well as archive documents correspondence and seminar minutes from the period covered to recreate the milieu in which these relatively neglected scholars made advances in the history of philosophy and science and produced

The Labyrinth of Universality Hena Maes-Jelinek, 2006-01-01 Wilson Harris many times nominated for the Nobel Prize in Literature is a British writer of Guyanese origin one of the most original novelists and critics of the twentieth century and probably the first to use and interpret the aesthetically fruitful notion of cross culturalism Harris's insights into the profound symbiosis between history culture and artistic expression were initially inspired by his encounters with Amerindians in the Guyanese rainforest interior where he led many surveying expeditions. These encounters aroused his interest in pre-Columbian peoples who figure prominently in many of his novels and stories. His perception of the Guyanese landscape is the source of his unique narrative rhetoric richly metaphoric language and philosophy of existence i.e. the epistemological and phenomenological interrelatedness between man animal life and nature. The present study offers magisterial in-depth interpretations of Harris's exhilaratingly complex and shape-shifting fictional worlds.

Michel Serres and French Philosophy of Science Massimiliano Simons, 2022-03-24 Massimiliano Simons provides the first systematic study of Serres's work in the context of 20th-century French philosophy of science. By proposing new readings of Serres's philosophy, Simons creates a synthesis between his predecessors Gaston Bachelard, Georges Canguilhem, and Louis Althusser, as well as contemporary Francophone philosophers of science such as Bruno Latour and Isabelle Stengers. Simons situates Serres's unique contribution through his notion of the quasi-object, a concept he argues organizes great parts of Serres's work into a promising philosophy of science as well as a challenge to the narrower field of French epistemology to which it has often been limited. Simons highlights how the concept encompasses Serres's commitment to positive relations between science and culture and his rejection of pleas to purify the scientific self from imaginative and cultural elements. It helps to situate Serres between the distinct traditions of Bachelard and Latour, as well as progressing the innovative aspects of Serres's philosophy for current debates in the philosophy, history, and sociology of science. Showing how Serres's philosophy can serve as a normative approach to science and technology, Michel Serres and French Philosophy of Science takes in themes of materiality, religiosity, modernity, and ecology to advance a timely alternative to philosophy of science for contemporary life.

Encyclopedia of Contemporary Literary Theory Irene Rima Makaryk, 1993-01-01 The last half of the twentieth century has seen the emergence of literary theory as a new discipline. As with any body of scholarship, various schools of thought exist and sometimes conflict within it. I. R. Makaryk has compiled a welcome guide to the field. Accessible and jargon-free, the Encyclopedia of Contemporary Literary Theory provides lucid, concise explanations of myriad approaches to literature that have arisen over the past forty years. Some 170 scholars from around the world have contributed their expertise to this volume. Their work is organized into three parts. In Part I, forty evaluative essays examine the historical and cultural context out of which new schools of and approaches to literature arose. The essays also discuss the uses and limitations of the various schools and the key issues they address. Part II focuses on individual theorists. It provides a more detailed picture of the network of scholars, not always easily pigeonholed into the categories of Part I. This second section analyses the individual achievements as well as the influence of specific scholars and places them in a larger critical context. Part III deals with the vocabulary of literary theory. It identifies significant complex terms, places them in context, and explains their origins and use. Accessibility is a key feature of the work. By avoiding jargon, providing mini-bibliographies, and cross referencing throughout Makaryk has provided an indispensable tool for literary theorists and historians and for all scholars and students of contemporary criticism and culture Cinematicity in Media History Jeffrey Geiger, 2015-03-02 Highlights the complex ways in which media anticipate interfere with and draw on one other Mircea Eliade Once Again Cristina Scarlat, 2011 Reading Anew: a Study of Critical Methods Through the Texts of Jacques Derrida Kathleen Blamey McLaughlin, 1975 Authors and Philosophers Brill Academic Pub, 1979 Word, Image and Experience Giselle de Nie, 2023-07-07 Focusing on the works of bishop Gregory of Tours 539 594 and the poet hagiographer Venantius Fortunatus 540 c 604 in later life bishop of Poitiers Dr de Nie gives in these innovative studies a new understanding of the miracle stories around which much of their writing revolves but whose bizarre dynamics appear to defy sense which has often resulted in their dismissal as useless to the historian These authors perceptions of miracles and their renderings of the human self awareness through which miracles are perceived and happen are analysed as attempts mostly rooted in models from the Bible to adjust the early Christian tradition so as to make sense of and protect themselves in the highly insecure environment of 6th century Frankish Gaul Drawing on modern anthropological and psychological studies notably in the area of spiritual healing practices as well as on philosophical and theological reflections about verbal and mental imagery she demonstrates how these can be used to throw fresh light on late antique society and its spirituality exploring views of mind affectivity body sensory phenomena symbols and the perception of women as well as of the qualities of images verbal language and texts The volume includes five essays not previously published in English Est-ce réel? map that emerges demonstrates the plurality of French language literatures going beyond the concept of a single unitary francophone literature to appreciate the profuse range of imaginaries connected by solidary texts that hoped for transformative independence. Importantly the book expands the francophone framework by connecting African and Caribbean literatures to Quebecois literature attending to their interactions while recognizing their particularities. The Quebec Connection's analysis of transnational francophone solidarities radically alters the field of francophone studies by redressing the racial logic that isolates the northern province from what has come to be called the postcolonial world.

The Infinite Conversation Maurice Blanchot, 1993 In this landmark volume Blanchot sustains a dialogue with a number of thinkers whose contributions have marked turning points in the history of Western thought and have influenced virtually all the themes that inflect the contemporary literary and philosophical debate today. Blanchot waits for us still to come to be read and reread. I would say that never as much as today have I pictured him so far ahead of us. Jacques Derrida Cultural Management and Policy in Latin America Raphaela Henze, Federico Escribal, 2021-05-19 Cultural Management and Policy in Latin America provides in depth insights into the education and training of cultural managers from interdisciplinary and comparative perspectives. The book focuses on the effects of neoliberalism on cultural policies across the region and questions how cultural managers in Latin America deal not only with contemporary political challenges but also with the omnipresent legacy of colonialism. In doing so it unpacks the methods, formats and narratives employed. Reflecting on emerging and contemporary research topics the book analyses the key literature and scholarly contexts to identify impacts in the region and beyond. The volume provides scholars, students and reflective practitioners with a comprehensive resource on international cultural management that helps to overcome Western-centric methods and theories.
