You don't have to be perfect. Distraction only hinders you from moving on. Your heart reveals your focus. Satisfaction isn't hard to find. When you're broken, good things can come out of it. You don't have to create passion; it's already in you. Searching doesn't have to be exhausting. These seven points of thought are the basics of a simple heart. If you find it hard to lead a simple life, it's time that you learn how. Join Robin as she talks about the reasons simplicity of heart can be hard to find. You may also realize that simplicity is already at your fingertips. Do you want a heart with less clutter and a life that is rich and fulfilled? If so, begin reading Simplicity of the Heart today. Blessings of the Father Mitch Reed, 2007-05

My Mother's Wars Lillian Faderman, 2015-07-14. An acclaimed writer on her mother's tumultuous life as a Jewish immigrant in 1930s New York and her life-long guilt when the Holocaust claims the family she left behind in Latvia. A story of love, war, and life as a Jewish immigrant in the squalid factories and lively dance halls of New York's Garment District in the 1930s. My Mother's Wars is the memoir. Lillian Faderman's mother was never able to write. The daughter delves into her mother's past to tell the story of a Latvian girl who left her village for America with dreams of a life on the stage and encountered the realities of her new world: the battles she was forced to fight as a woman, an immigrant worker, and a Jew with family left behind in Hitler's deadly path. The story begins in 1914. Mary, the girl who will become Lillian Faderman's mother, just seventeen and swept up with vague ambitions to be a dancer travels alone to America where her half sister in Brooklyn takes her in She finds a job in the garment industry and a shop friend who teaches her the thrills of dance halls and the cheap amusements open to working class girls This dazzling life leaves Mary distracted and her half sister and brother in law scandalized that she has become a good time gal They kick her out of their home an event with consequences Mary will regret for the rest of her life Eighteen years later still barely scraping by as a garment worker and unmarried at thirty five Mary falls madly in love and has a torrid romance with a man who will never marry her but who will father Lillian Faderman before he disappears from their lives America is in the midst of the Depression Hitler is coming to power in Europe and New York s garment workers are just beginning to unionize Mary makes tentative steps to join despite her lover s angry opposition As National Socialism engulfs Europe Mary realizes she must find a way to get her family out of Latvia and she spends frenetic months chasing vague promises and false rumors of hope Pregnant again after having submitted to two wrenching back room abortions and still unmarried Mary faces both single motherhood and the devastating possibility of losing her entire Eastern European family Drawing on family stories and documents as well as her own tireless research Lillian Faderman has reconstructed an engrossing and essential chapter in the history of women of workers of Jews and of the Holocaust as immigrants experienced it from American shores
