Raible, 2015-12-14 Reform of the educational systems in the United States and all over the world are coming from a wide variety of sources philanthropists and businesses federal and state governments administrators and teachers both large and small school districts More nimble school districts have the best chance of creating a revised model of educational delivery that will produce successful students The national statistics are awful For every 100 low income students that enter high school only 65 will get a high school diploma 53 will enroll in college and will

11 actually complete a college degree Nachazel and Dziuba 2014 And the statistics for students living in poverty are far worse This is one of many reasons why Roger Cook and the Taylor County Schools are of particular interest Any district with a 61% poverty rate and over 40% of students attending college and zero yes zero dropouts deserves to be examined

Keeping Girls in School McConnell,Christin ,Mupuwaliywa,Mupuwaliywa ,2015 International evidence indicates that keeping girls in school positively impacts their life trajectory and benefits the well being of the next generation Malawi has made progress in increasing overall enrollment rates but additional effort is still needed to ensure that adolescent girls stay in school and complete a quality education Starting in the upper grades of primary school adolescent girls are more likely to drop out of school than their male counterparts with pregnancy early marriage and school fees frequently cited as the main reasons One of the key challenges in Malawi will be to both focus on girls before they reach puberty and ensure that they get the support they need to complete primary school and successfully transition to secondary school Meanwhile adolescent boys will also need support and guidance to invest in their own education and to value the education of their female peers as a way to build stronger families and communities and break the inter generational cycle of poverty The Government of Malawi will need to assess the effectiveness and sustainability of its policy and programs including those by partners to scale and consolidate accordingly in order to avoid a scattered approach
