Possibilities, Challenges, and Changes in English Teacher Education Today Heidi L. Hallman,Kristen Pastore-Capuana,Donna L. Pasternak,2019-05-24 This book focuses on English teacher educators experiences concerning professionalization and teacher identity The term professionalization itself can be problematized Popkewitz 1994 as it connotes adherence to realities to professional norms that are based within particular histories Yet teacher educators must confront how to mentor prospective teachers into the field and how changes to the field manifest changes to what it means to be a professional In research about changes in English teacher education over the past twenty years Pasternak Caughlan Hallman Renzi and Rush 2017 presented five distinct foci of ELA programs that have evolved 1 changes to field experiences within teacher education programs 2 altered conceptions of teaching literature and literacy within the context of ELA 3 increased adherence to standardization 4 changing demographics of students in K 12 classrooms and 5 increased expectations for use of technology within ELA These foci impact how professionals in ELA are viewed both from inside and outside the profession and how they navigate these tensions in teacher education programs to define what it means to identify as an English teacher Throughout the book chapter authors articulate dilemmas that focus around professionalization and teacher identity questioning what it means to be an English teacher today While some chapters suggest methods for increased awareness of tensions within practice other chapters approach professionalization and teacher identity by asking what the limits of methods classes and teacher education might be in preparing ELA teachers and supporting them to remain in the profession Today s political environment devalues teachers and teaching a situation that has critics deriding the educational standards at institutes of higher education while concurrently lauding alternative programs that do not have to adhere to the same rigorous teacher certification requirements English teacher educators are now being asked to design programs soften requirements and recruit and mentor teacher candidates to a profession that in the past certified more new English teachers than it could employ The chapters in this book explore what it means to educate and be an English teacher educator under these conditions   Handbook of Technological Pedagogical Content Knowledge (TPCK) for Educators Mary C. Herring,Matthew J. Koehler,Punya Mishra,Published by The AACTE Committee on Innovation and Technology,2014-06-11 Published by Taylor Francis Group for the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education This Handbook addresses the concept and implementation of technological pedagogical content knowledge the knowledge and skills that teachers need in order to integrate technology meaningfully into instruction in specific content areas Recognizing for example that effective uses of technology in mathematics are quite different from effective uses of technology in social studies teachers need specific preparation in using technology in each content area they will be teaching Offering a series of chapters by scholars in different content areas who apply the technological pedagogical content knowledge framework to their individual content areas the volume is structured around three themes What is Technological Pedagogical Content Knowledge Integrating Technological Pedagogical Content Knowledge into Specific Subject Areas Integrating Technological Pedagogical Content Knowledge into Teacher Education and Professional Development The Handbook of Technological Pedagogical Content Knowledge for Educators is simultaneously a mandate and a manifesto on the engagement of technology in classrooms based on consensus standards and rubrics for effectiveness As the title of the concluding chapter declares It s about time The American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education AACTE is a national voluntary association of higher education institutions and related organizations Our mission is to promote the learning of all PK 12 students through high quality evidence based preparation and continuing education for all school personnel For more information on our publications visit our website at www aacte org
