Collective Redress and EU Competition Law Eda Şahin,2018-12-07 Exploring obstacles to effective compensation of victims of competition infringements this book categorises the types of victims harmed and the types of losses arisen from these infringements to identify to what extent there is a need for enhanced private competition law enforcement in the European Union EU and the best way to address this need It shows that there is a genuine need for facilitating consumer damages actions and that consumer claims are the only claims that can be pursued in a collective redress action In order to compensate consumers and overcome barriers to effective enforcement of their right to damages it structures a collective redress action for consumers by considering the following elements i the formation of the group ii the type of representative party iii funding mechanisms and iv calculation and distribution of damages Handbook of

Research on Economic and Social Well-Being Conchita D'Ambrosio,2018-03-30 The past decade has been characterized by a burgeoning interest in new concepts of individual and social well being The impetus for this new research has stemmed from increased demand from policy makers and civil society for measures of progress that go beyond the traditional measures of GDP as well as improved datasets allowing individuals and households to be tracked over their life course The aim of this Handbook is to chart these developments and provide extensive surveys of many of the recent themes that have emerged in the research literature Some of the topics addressed include poverty relative deprivation and satisfaction economic insecurity social exclusion and inequality income and social polarization and social fractionalization and diversity Each topic is first analyzed from a theoretical perspective followed by detailed empirical discussion Handbook of Field Experiments Esther Duflo,Abhijit Banerjee,2017-03-21 Handbook of Field Experiments Volume Two explains how to conduct experimental research presents a catalog of research to date and describes which areas remain to be explored The new volume includes sections on field experiments in education in developing countries how to design social protection programs a section on how to combat poverty and updates on data relating to the impact and determinants of health levels in low income countries Separating itself from circumscribed debates of specialists this volume surpasses the many journal articles and narrowly defined books written by practitioners This ongoing series will be of particular interest to scholars working with experimental methods Users will find results from politics education and more Balances methodological insights with analyses of principal findings and suggestions for further research Appeals broadly to social scientists seeking to develop an expertise in field experiments Written in a language that is accessible to graduate students and non specialist economists

Patent Settlements in the Pharmaceutical Industry under US Antitrust and EU Competition Law Amalia Athanasiadou,2018-08-14 Reverse payment settlements or pay for delay agreements between originators and generic drug manufacturers create heated debates regarding the balance between competition and intellectual property law These settlements touch upon sensitive issues such as timely generic entry and access to affordable pharmaceuticals and also the need to preserve innovation incentives for originators and to strengthen the pipeline of life saving pharmaceuticals This book is one of the first to critically and comparatively analyse how such patent settlements and various other strategies employed by the pharmaceutical industry are scrutinised by both United States US and European courts and enforcement authorities and to discuss the applicable legal tests and the main criteria used for their assessment The book s ultimate objective is to provide guidance to the pharmaceutical industry regarding the types of patent settlements strategies and conduct which may be problematic from US antitrust and European Union EU competition law perspectives and to assist practitioners in structuring settlements which are both efficient and compliant To this end an exhaustive legal analysis of some of the most controversial issues regarding pharmaceutical patent settlements is provided including the lengthy split among US Circuit Courts on the issue of pay for delay settlements its resolution by the US Supreme Court in FTC v Actavis and subsequent jurisprudence the decision of Lundbeck v Commission by the European General Court and the Servier decision of the European Commission the Roche Novartis decision of the European Court of Justice and the most important decisions by National Competition Authorities on pharma patent settlements in the EU an overview of other types of strategies such as product hopping and product reformulations no authorised generic commitments problematic side deals mechanisms affecting generic substitution the rejection of the scope of the patent test in both the US and the EU and the balancing of patent law and antitrust law considerations in the prevailing applicable tests the benefits of settlements and the main criteria for assessing their legitimacy under US antitrust and EU competition law The analysis provides concrete examples of both illegitimate and legitimate settlements and strategies emphasising on conduct that falls within a grey zone and on the circumstances and criteria under which such conduct could be deemed problematic from an antitrust perspective This book will serve as a valuable guide for pharmaceutical companies wishing to minimise the risk of engaging in conduct that could potentially infringe US antitrust and EU competition law It further aims to save courts and enforcement agencies and also practitioners and academics considerable time and resources by providing an exhaustive analysis of the relevant caselaw with the ultimate goal to increase legal certainty on the most controversial aspects of patent settlements in the pharmaceutical industry
