Law Pre Entry 2015 2016:

Research Handbook on International Refugee Law Satvinder Singh Juss, 2019 In an age of ethnic nationalism and anti immigrant rhetoric the study of refugees can help develop a new outlook on social justice just as the post war international order ends The global financial crisis the rise of populist leaders like Trump Putin and Erdogan not to mention the arrival of anti EU parties raises the need to interrogate the refugee migrant citizen stateless legal and illegal as concepts This insightful Research Handbook is a timely contribution to that debate

Lawyers in 21st-Century Societies Richard L Abel, Ole Hammerslev, Hilary Sommerlad, Ulrike Schultz, 2020-04-02 The world's legal professions have undergone dramatic changes in the 30 years since publication of the landmark three volume Lawyers in Society which launched comparative sociological studies of lawyers This is the first of two volumes in which scholars from a wide range of disciplines countries and cultures document and analyse those changes The present volume presents reports on 46 countries with broad coverage of North America Western Europe Latin America Asia Australia North Africa and the Middle East sub Saharan Africa and former communist countries These national reports address the impact of globalisation and neoliberalism on national legal professions the relationship of lawyers and their professional associations to the state and tensions between state and citizenship changes in lawyer demography rapidly growing numbers and the profession's efforts to retain control the entry of women and obstacles to full gender equality ethnic diversity legal education the proliferation of institutions and pedagogic innovation the regulation of lawyers structures of production especially the growth of large firms and the impact of technology and paraprofessionals the distribution of lawyers across roles and access to justice state funded legal aid and pro bono services The juxtaposition of the reports reveals the dramatic transformations of professional rationales labour markets and working practices and the multiple contingencies of the role of lawyers in societies experiencing increasing juridification within a new geopolitical order

Weaponising Investments Jens Hillebrand Pohl, Thomas Papadopoulos, Janosch Wiesenthal, Joanna Warchol, 2024-02-20 This second volume of highly topical two volume set The Investment Weapon continues to present pioneering research for the purpose of developing a common analytical foundation and framework for the emerging interdisciplinary research field of investment control This second volume shifts the focus from the policy context to the legal and regulatory aspects of investment controls specifically from an international transnational and comparative law perspective The topics range from control of subsidized investments to non national security related investment controls and alternatives to investment screening

International Governance and the Rule of Law in China under the Belt and Road Initiative Yun Zhao, 2018-10-18 This edited volume aims at examining China's role in the field of international governance and the rule of law under the Belt and Road Initiative from a holistic manner It seeks alternative analytical frameworks that not only take into account legal ideologies and legal ideals but also local demand and socio political circumstances to explain and understand China's legal interactions with countries along the Road so that more useful insights can be produced in predicting and analysing China's as well as other emerging Asian countries legal future. Authors from Germany, Korea, Singapore, Mainland China, Taiwan and Hong Kong have contributed to this edited volume which produces academic dialogues and conducts intellectual exchanges in specific sub themes. Good Faith and Insurance Contracts Peter MacDonald Eggers, Simon Picken, 2017-12-06. Good Faith and Insurance Contracts sets out an exhaustive analysis of the law concerning the duty of utmost good faith as applied to insurance contracts. Now in its fourth edition it has been updated to address the arrival of the Insurance Act 2015 as well as any references to new case law. In addition it synthesises all known judicial decisions by the English Courts concerning good faith in this area. This book is still the only text devoted to a discussion of the duty of utmost good faith applicable to insurance contracts. As good faith is an issue which arises in respect of all insurance contracts it is a book which will be extremely useful to lawyers involved in insurance as well as insurance practitioners. The Refugee in International Law Guy S. Goodwin-Gill, Jane McAdam, Emma Dunlop, 2021. Millions of people are today forced to flee their homes as a result of conflict, systematic discrimination or other forms of persecution. The core instruments on which they must rely to secure international protection are the 1951 Convention Relating to the Status of Refugees and its 1967 Protocol. This book, the leading text in the field, examines key challenges to the Convention such as the status of refugees, applications for asylum and the international and domestic standards of protection. The situation of refugees is one of the most pressing and urgent problems facing the international community and refugee law has grown in recent years to a subject of global importance. In this long-awaited fourth edition each chapter has been thoroughly revised and updated and every issue old and new has received fresh analysis. The book includes analysis of internally displaced persons, so-called preventive protection, access to refugees, safety of refugees and relief personnel, the situation of refugee women and children, a detailed examination of the role of the UNHCR and the Palestinian situation and an assessment of the protection possibilities or lack of them in the European Convention on Human Rights. This new edition has been expanded with coverage of forced migration and displacement as a result of disasters and climate change. It is once again an unmissable reference work for practitioners and students in the field.

Reconceptualizing International Investment Law from the Global South Fabio Morosini, Michelle Ratton Sanchez Badin, 2017-10-26. This book shows how the current reform in investment regulation is part of a broader attempt to transform the international economic order. Countries in the North and South are currently rethinking how economic order should be constituted in order to advance their national interests and preferred economic orientation. While some countries in the North seek to create alternative institutional spaces in order to promote neoliberal policies more effectively, some countries in the South are increasingly skeptical of this version of economic order and are experimenting with alternative versions of legal ordering that do not always sit well with mainstream versions promoted by the North. While we recognize that there are differences in approaches to the investment regimes proposed by countries in the South, we identify commonalities that could function as the founding pillars of an alternative economic order Handbook on the Governance and Politics of Migration Emma Carmel, Katharina Lenner, Regine Paul, 2021-04-30 This innovative Handbook sets out a conceptual and analytical framework for the critical appraisal of migration governance Global and interdisciplinary in scope the chapters are organised across six key themes conceptual debates categorisations of migration governance regimes processes spaces of migration governance and mobilisations around it Congressional-Executive Commission on China Annual Report 2016

, 2016-10-27 The Congressional Executive Commission on China is tasked with monitoring China's compliance with human rights particularly those contained in the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights as well as monitoring the development of the rule of law in China As part of its mandate the Commission issues an annual report every October covering the preceding 12 month period and including recommendations for U S legislative or executive action This volume contains the 2016 report OECD Economic Surveys: Greece 2018
