Peter Hince didn't have to imagine for more than a decade he lived a life that other people can only dream of as he worked with Queen as head of their road crew. In 1973 Queen was the support act for Mott the Hoople for whom Peter was a roadie. Back then Queen had to content themselves with being second on the bill and the world had not yet woken up to the flamboyant talent of Freddie Mercury. Peter started working full time for Queen just as they were making A Night at the Opera, the album which catapulted them to international stardom. In this intimate and affectionate book Peter recalls the highlights of his years with the band. He was with Freddie when he composed Crazy Little Thing Called Love; he was responsible for making sure that Freddie's stage performances went without a hitch and was often there to witness his famed tantrums. He was also party to the sex, drugs, and rock n' roll which are invariably part of life on the road with a rock band.
