

My Most Embarrassing Moment

I really did not know what to write about, but I was reminded this morning as I stopped to fuel the car up, of one of my most embarrassing moments since I moved back "home". It was an early morning and I was off to drop my lady at work. I had only jumped out to get some milk and since I had chosen a time when all the convenience stores were closed, I had to go into the gas station to buy some. After leaving the gas station, I jumped into the car and instantly felt there was something was off. A lady's voice said, "Hello there". From I heard the voice, it convinced me that something wasn't right. But for some reason my instant reaction was to sit quietly behind the wheel of the car and pretend it was all a dream. The moment felt like hours, although I knew it was only for a few seconds.

Finally, I looked to my right and there sat a really smiley lady with a distinct look of "yeah umm, why you in my car? But also with a smirk as if she was trying to hold in a laugh. I said quietly under my breathe, "Hi. I'm in the wrong car aren't I? " I confirmed this when I looked to the car to my left and my lady friend was sitting staring at me with the window down. When we caught eyes both of us burst into laughter. I turned back to the lady and said "At least tell me it's the same model and color of my car", I pleaded with the lady who by now was really struggling not to become hysterical with laughter. I think now is the time for me to add that I was wearing my pajama bottoms. I got out of the car and stood back to see that I had in fact got into a red Infiniti G37, which was parked next to my grey Honda accord.

What made the moment even more embarrassing was that her sister came at the same time I was embarrassed. I do not

Chasing after Wind Douglas J. Brouwer, 2022-03-01 One pastor's journey from idealism through disillusionment to an acceptance of grace After forty years as a Presbyterian pastor Douglas Brouwer wondered if he had spent his life as the author of Ecclesiastes laments chasing after wind What did all the hard work on evenings and weekends and holidays away from his family amount to What was there to make of the long string of petty conflicts and the overwhelming feeling of disillusionment And in the current age of shrinking mainline churches what could he point to as the end result of his decades in ministry Chasing after Wind will resonate with pastors everywhere who went into ministry to do lifechanging work for God and ended up spending most of their time managing the parking situation outside the church fielding parishioner complaints about the color of the sanctuary carpet or in Brouwer's case the color of his shoes and endlessly fundraising for mission projects and building maintenance In telling his story Brouwer comes to recognize that the most meaningful parts of his career the holy bits as he calls them were in unexpected moments where everything was stripped away but the mysterious work of God Recounting these times of curious joy and shared mourning he demonstrates how a pastor can find grace and peace in looking back on a life in ministry
