

My Last Duchess by Robert Browning

That's my last Duchess painted on the wall,
Looking as if she were alive. I call

That piece a wonder, now, Fra Pandolf's hands
Worked busily a day, and there she stands.
Will't please you sit and look at her? I said
"Fra Pandolf" by design, for never read

Strangers like you that pictured countenance,
The depth and passion of its earnest glance,
But to myself they turned (since none puts by

The curtain I have drawn for you, but I)

And seemed as they would ask me, if they durst,
How such a glance came there; so, not the first
Are you to turn and ask thus. Sir, 'twas not

Her husband's presence only, called that spot
Of joy into the Duchess' cheek; perhaps
Fra Pandolf chanced to say, "Her mantle laps

Over my lady's wrist too much," or "Paint
Must never hope to reproduce the faint
Half-flush that dies along her throat." Such stuff
Was courtesy, she thought, and cause enough
For calling up that spot of joy. She had

A heart—how shall I say?— too soon made glad,
Too easily impressed; she liked whate'er
She looked on, and her looks went everywhere.

Sir, 'twas all one! My favour at her breast,

The dropping of the daylight in the West,

The bough of cherries some officious fool

Broke in the orchard for her, the white mule

She rode with round the terrace—all and each

1. 'My' is a possessive pronoun. What does that show about how the Duke views the Duchess, even when she is dead?

2. The Duke says 'now' that she is dead, he sees the painting of her as a 'wonder'. What does this suggest about how he used to view her?

CHALLENGE 1: The Duke is the only person who is allowed to draw back the curtain covering the painting of the Duchess. What does that symbolise? Why is a curtain used to cover her?

3. 'Durst' means 'dare'. What does this quotation reveal about the Duke?

CHALLENGE 2: The Duke is referring to the Duchess blushing here. Why does he call it a "spot" of joy? Also, is this a normal way to view someone blushing? Why is the Duchess blushing?

4. Choose a word here that makes this description of the Duchess blushing sound ominous and sinister:

5. What technique is used here with the hyphens and what does it suggest about the Duke's emotions here?

Technique: _____
Duke's emotions: _____

6. What do these three things have in common that the Duchess liked and what does it tell the reader about her?
