Creating a nexus between techno science and more fundamental disciplines a phenomenon is emerging in our personal lives we are beginning to preempt traditional sources for relationship formation we are becoming more insular and more cautious in starting relationships The media play an enormous role in our activities encouraging us to self advertise in newspapers and magazines to participate vicariously through pornographic and borderline books talk radio and tabloid television to use our telephones and computers for the ultimate in safe sex to engage in video dating and to explore many other aspects in the field of technoeroticism As straight and gay people alike live in a time of reluctant commitments a period of playtime and the Age of AIDS the time has come to chronicle the role of mass communication in our search for interpersonal connections

Media Mediated Relationships investigates the historical economic psychological and sociocultural ramifications of the print and broadcast media motion pictures music and new communications technologies computers video interactive media virtual reality phone sex in terms of both our individual and societal concerns An extension of cultivation analysis by means of systems theory it reports on a baseline survey of over 200 people regarding relationship mediation demonstrating yet one more example of the symbiosis among and between various media sources A descriptive case study Media Mediated Relationships provides a barometer for better understanding the many singles and others searching for meaning and relationships in the sociocultural milieu of the 1990s and beyond
