IB World Schools Yearbook 2009 Wendy Bosberry-Scott, 2009 Differentiating Instruction for Gifted Learners
Christine L. Weber, Wendy A. Behrens, Cecelia Boswell, 2021-09-03 Differentiating Instruction for Gifted Learners allows educators and stakeholders to examine issues related to differentiating curriculum and instruction in a variety of contexts. The case studies in this rich resource analyze various differentiation strategies and their benefits to promote classrooms where every student belongs, every student is valued, and every student is nurtured. The cases facilitate conversations about children and their unique needs by situating learning in authentic and meaningful contexts with the goal of helping educators improve services and programs for gifted and talented students. Things to Consider guide the reader's thinking without imparting an explicit action recommendation or solution. Discussion questions, activities, extensions, and suggestions for additional readings support the standards of excellence set forth in the revised NAGC CEC Teacher Preparation Standards in Gifted and Talented Education and the NAGC CEC Advanced Standards in Gifted Education Teacher Preparation.

Hong, Chung-Mou SI, 2023-11-29 This book explores the learning and teaching of K-12 Chinese language in international schools. The authors of this book are scholars from teaching training institutions and universities as well as professional frontline teachers. With a combination of the works and insights from both perspectives of theory and practice, the book presents how theories of teaching can be operated in classroom to improve the effectiveness of language teaching. It covers curriculum setting, design of teaching materials, teaching principles, methods, strategies, and evaluation. The book also discusses issues and concepts such as concept-driven learning, identity change, and recognition of L1 and L2 Chinese teacher pinyin teaching, Chinese character teaching, evaluation for learning improvement, and integration of South Asian non-Chinese speaking students into local schools. It emphasizes empirical action research methods. This is a highly informative and carefully presented book providing high value insights to scholars from university and teacher training institutions and teachers from kindergartens, primary and secondary schools around the world.
