Family, Children, and Tourism in China Mimi Li,Xinran Lehto,2021-12-14 This edited volume explores various issues in family tourism studies and complements the dramatic development of this market segment in China The book concentrates on family and children tourism and through its chapters hopes to enrich the landscape of family tourism in academia The family market in tourism has received increasing attention over past decades Yet academic endeavors in this area remain somewhat lacking in depth and scope In addition to imbalanced contributions from authors of diverse backgrounds the extant literature suffers from insufficient inclusion of children Relevant studies are largely limited to conventional tourism destinations such as beaches and cultural attractions In response to growing academic interest in family tourism this book is a compilation of eight chapters that attempt to push the scope and boundaries of existing research on family tourism The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the Journal of China Tourism Research

Food and Cooking Skills Education Anita Tull,2018-01-29 Food and Cooking Skills Education FCSE is a complex mix of policy and practicality educational theory and pedagogy classroom and government policy This book shows how FCSE has been at the centre of a tussle between education and policy for decades It reviews how FCSE has grappled with various significant issues of concern that threaten to marginalise it and pose problems for educational practicalities as expectations are increased but resources are squeezed It assesses the debate about the significance and importance of acquiring practical food and cooking skills in a society where the purchase of ready made food has become commonplace and public knowledge of where our food comes from is noticeably lacking This has contributed to the escalating incidence of diet related diseases and the attendant cost to society and threatened environmental sustainability In turn governments have reacted by proposals to make practical cooking skills a statutory National Curriculum subject as part of the armoury for tackling such costs Based on detailed research conducted across England and Wales as well as comparisons with thirty five other countries or states the author makes recommendations for policy to manage this challenge facing contemporary society
