How to Do Things with Videogames Ian Bogost, 2011-08-05 In recent years computer games have moved from the margins of popular culture to its center Reviews of new games and profiles of game designers now regularly appear in the New York Times and the New Yorker and sales figures for games are reported alongside those of books music and movies They are increasingly used for purposes other than entertainment yet debates about videogames still fork along one of two paths accusations of debasement through violence and isolation or defensive paeans to their potential as serious cultural works In How to Do Things with Videogames Ian Bogost contends that such generalizations obscure the limitless possibilities offered by the medium's ability to create complex simulated realities Bogost a leading scholar of videogames and an award winning game designer explores the many ways computer games are used today documenting important historical and cultural events educating both children and adults promoting commercial products and serving as platforms for art pornography exercise relaxation pranks and politics Examining these applications in a series of short inviting and provocative essays he argues that together they make the medium broader richer and more relevant to a wider audience Bogost concludes that as videogames become ever more enmeshed with contemporary life the idea of gamers as social identities will become obsolete giving rise to gaming by the masses But until games are understood to have valid applications across the cultural spectrum their true potential will remain unrealized How to Do Things with Videogames offers a fresh starting point to more fully consider games progress today and promise for the future Daily Graphic Sam Clegg,1992-03-04 Autocar ,2005 Torque ,2008-02 Singapore's best homegrown car magazine with an editorial dream team driving it We fuel the need for speed Torque ,2008-01 Singapore's best homegrown car magazine with an editorial dream team driving it We fuel the need for speed Motor Cycling and Motoring ,1987 Torque ,2008-07 Singapore's best homegrown car magazine with an editorial dream team driving it We fuel the need for speed Code of Federal Regulations ,2003 The Autocar ,1987 Government Reports Announcements & Index ,1983 Press Summary - Illinois Information Service Illinois Information Service,2003-10-20 The Weekly Review ,1993 Standard Directory of Advertising Agencies ,1999 Register of Ships ,1993 Congressional Record United States.
