My Forbidden Face Chapter :

My Forbidden Face Latifa,2008-09-04 Latifa was born into an educated middle class Afghan family in Kabul in 1980 She dreamed of one day of becoming a journalist she was interested in fashion movies and friends Her father was in the import export business and her mother was a doctor Then in September 1996 Taliban soldiers seized power in Kabul From that moment Latifa just 16 years old became a prisoner in her own home Her school was closed Her mother was banned from working The simplest and most basic freedoms walking down the street looking out a window were no longer hers She was now forced to wear a chadri My Forbidden Face provides a poignant and highly personal account of life under the Taliban regime With painful honesty and clarity Latifa describes the way she watched her world falling apart in the name of a fanatical interpretation of a faith that she could not comprehend Her voice captures a lost innocence but also echoes her determination to live in freedom and hope Earlier this year Latifa and her parents escaped Afghanistan with the help of a French based Afghan resistance group

Adolescents in the Search for Meaning Mary L. Warner,2006-03-03 As is painfully evident from the reports of school shootings gang violence dysfunctional family life and from statistics on adolescent suicide many teens live troubled lives Even those who live a normal life still face the challenges adults face but teens are also engaged in establishing independence and finding their identity However few adolescents have the same resources as adults for surviving life challenges Building from the idea that story is a powerful source of meaning particularly those stories that resonate with our own lives this book suggests that the stories of other young adults offer a resource yet to be fully tapped Adolescents in the Search for Meaning begins from the perspective of young adults by sharing the results of a survey of over 1400 teens and also includes the insights of authors of Young Adult Literature The book presents over 120 novels that teens have identified as meaningful as well as books recommended by YA authors and experts in the field of YA literature For any teacher librarian parent or counselor wanting to reach young adults this book is ideal

Face-veiled Women in Contemporary Indonesia Eva F. Nisa,2022-09-21 Face veiling is relatively new in Indonesia It is often stereotyped as a sign of extremism and the growing Arabisation of Indonesian Muslims It is also perceived as a symbol that demonstrates a lack of female agency However increasing numbers of women are choosing to wear the cadar the full face veil This book provides an ethnographic study of these women why they choose to wear the cadar embody strict religious disciplinary practices and the consequences of that choice The women in this book belong to two Islamic revivalist movements various Salafi groups and the Tabl gh Jam at Indonesia has constantly witnessed transformations in the meanings and practices of Islam and this book demonstrates that women are key actors in this process Nisa demonstrates that contrary to stereotypes the women in this study have an agency which is expressed through their chosen docility and obedience
