My Mother Class :

Japanese Women, Class and the Tea Ceremony Kaeko Chiba, 2010-09-13 This book examines the complex relationship between class and gender dynamics among tea ceremony chad practitioners in Japan Focusing on practitioners in a provincial city Akita the book surveys the rigid hierarchical chad system at grass roots level Making critical use of Bourdieu's idea of cultural capital it explores the various meanings of chad for Akita women and argues that chad has a cultural economic social and symbolic value and is used as a tool to improve gender and class equality Chad practitioners focus on tea procedure and related aspects of chad such as architecture flower arranging gardening and pottery Initially only men were admitted to chad women were admitted in the Meiji period 1868 1912 and now represent the majority of practitioners The author a chad practitioner and descendant of chad teachers provides a thorough honest account of Akita women based on extensive participant observation and interviews Where most literature on Japan focuses on metropolitan centres such as Kitakyushu and Tokyo this book is original in both its subject and scope Also as economic differences between metropolitan and non metropolitan areas have become more pronounced it is timely to explore the specific class and gender issues affecting non metropolitan women This book contributes not only to the ethnographic literature on chad and non metropolitan women in Japan but also to the debates on research methodology and the theoretical discussion of class

Stories for Every Classroom Beverly A. Brenna ,2015 Academic study of children's literature has explored various aspects of diversity however little research has examined Canadian books that portray characters with disabilities This relevant and timely text addresses the significant dearth of research by exploring the treatment of disability in Canadian literature for young people Engaging and highly accessible this text will assist teachers teacher educators and teacher candidates in finding and using books about characters where disability is a part of their characterization supporting the development of curricula that reflect critical literacy and social justice issues Stories for Every Classroom explores the historical patterns and trends theoretical frameworks and critical literacy methods used to understand and teach children's literature and its portrayal of characters with disabilities It provides educators with curriculum ideas and enriches the body of resources shared with children in K 12 settings for the purposes of developing imagination empathy and understanding of self and others Featuring author portraits comprehensive annotated bibliographies of contemporary Canadian children's books that depict characters with disabilities and read on bibliographies that provide connections with other books in the field this unique text will be an invaluable resource for educators

Archive of Tongues Moon Charania, 2023-06-30 In Archive of Tongues Moon Charania explores feminine dispossession and the brown diaspora through a reflection on the life of her mother Drawing on her mother's memories and stories of migration violence sexuality queerness domesticity and the intimate economies of everyday life Charania conceptualizes her mother's tongue as an object of theory and an archive of brown intimate life By presenting a mode of storytelling that is sensual and melancholic piercing and sharp Charania recovers otherwise silenced modes of brown mothers survival disobedience and meaning making that are often only lived out in invisible intimate spaces and too often disappear into them In narrating her mother s tongue as both metaphor for and material reservoir of other ways of knowing Charania gestures to the afflictions limits and failures of feminist queer and postcolonial scholarly interrogations and the consequences of closing the archive of the brown mother

Women and Social Class Christine Zmroczek, Pat Mahony, 1999 This text focuses on women s theorized experience of social class from a range of feminist perspectives contextualized in relation to where they live

Mixed-Race, Post-Race Suki Ali, 2020-05-27 Social scientists claim that we now live in a post race society where race has been replaced by ethnicity Yet racism is endemic to British society and people often think in terms of black and white With a marked rise in the number of children from mixed parentage there is an urgent need to challenge simplistic understandings of race nation and culture and interrogate what it means to grow up in Britain and claim a mixed identity Focusing on mixed race and inter ethnic families this book not only explores current understandings of race but it shows using innovative research techniques with children how we come to read race What influence do photographs and television have on childrens ideas about race How do children use memories and stories to talk about racial differences within their own families How important is the home and domestic culture in achieving a sense of belonging Ali also considers through data gathered from teachers and parents broader issues relating to the effectiveness of anti racist and multicultural teaching in schools and parental concerns over the social mobility and social acceptability of their children Rigorously researched this book is the first to combine childrens accounts on race and identity with contemporary cultural theory Using fascinating case studies it fills a major gap in this area and provides an original approach to writing on race

Poetry of the Fifth Ape Ardi Krum, 2020-11-19 Ardi Krum wrote poetry to express emotions and thoughts during her years of earnestly seeking God A God who through a congregation of evangelicals she grew to fear yet sincerely begged for his love Her inquisitive mind needed answers concerning doctrine yet the church demanded a life based solely on faith and questions were discouraged So even with the threat of a wrathful God Ardi began reaching outside her circle to professors and scholars Ardi encountered people who could answer her questions based on scientific facts Over time both the stories and the poetry change from a defeated young woman pleading with a deity for acceptance to a woman brazenly stepping outside the shadow of the cross Through an unquenchable thirst for answers supported by facts you see the transformation from a humiliated fallen angel to a primate rising up and awakening as the Fifth Ape

Blossom of the Golden Bell Hwain Chang Lee, 2016-11-03 The Bible has many stories about women In these stories of women we see a reflection of ourselves and our own reality physical spiritual and social Like these women Hwain s mother possessed deep faith in her Lord Korean Christian women build their lives on two foundations The first is the hard reality of the lives of women in the Bible The second is the long history of Korean women born into a system of Confucian belief Blossom of the Golden Bell is a story about Hwain s mother The story is a mingling and converging of two realities the hard lives of the women of the Bible and the history Korean women are born into Hwain's mother gave Hwain life and then gave her own life to Hwain. She influenced and taught Hwain spiritually and socially. Hwain cannot forget the stories of her mother's past nor leave them unrecorded. Therefore this book is Hwain's gift to her mother. Hwain's wish is for the stories contained in this book to reflect light onto other women just as it did for Hwain. Footprints in Obscurity Pramudith D. Rupasinghe, 2016-03-11

A boy who was longing to discover the imaginary world that conquered his mind when his father was narrating free time stories reaches the final destination after three decades breaking frontiers overcoming diverse hurdles and thus making the journey an unique and colourful experience. Footprints in Obscurity is an impressive effort by the author in taking the reader on a real time journey across twenty nine African countries. It's a story of endurance perseverance and transformation meshed with contemporary African realities encapsulated in twenty chapters dedicated to carefully selected themes based on the author's first hand experiences during half a decade of travels. An unconventional revelation and a true story about Africa the book also provides a profound psychological insight on how childhood dreams often shape one's adult life.

The Survivor Champion Josée Kana Bizimana, 2022-09-01

Josée's story has put the reality of life out there. You wake up in the morning with a normal life and in the afternoon gunshots make you leave everything you had behind. Said Josée. Her story tells how you can still fight for your rights even at a younger age. When she was a teenager she was trapped in the war Zones in three different East African countries. Burundi civil war 1993 Rwandan Genocide 1994 and Congo DRC civil war 1996. I was born refugee and always found myself in the same position in every country that I have lived in until the age 29. She said. She was used to running away because of war and became so traumatised to believe that she could settle or feel comfortable living in a new country without being worried that anytime things might turn around the wrong way. She always thought that war might break down and make her leave again. In her story of being a Survivor Champion she also opens up about her experiences of domestic violence living an emotionally abusive life and many more tragedies that will be found in the pages of this book. Josée's story shows that you can always be adventurous and try to move to other places for a better life. She says. The best decision I have ever made in life was moving to other places countries cities for a better life. You don't have to settle for a painful life.

Revisionary Rhetoric, Feminist Pedagogy, and Multigenre Texts Julie Jung, 2005-07-15

In this precise and provocative treatise Julie Jung augments the understanding and teaching of revision by arguing that the process should entail changing attitudes rather than simply changing texts. Revisionary Rhetoric Feminist Pedagogy and Multigenre Texts proposes and demonstrates alternative ways of reading writing and teaching that hear silences in such a way as to generate personal pedagogical and professional revisions. As both a challenge to prevailing revision pedagogies and an elaboration of contemporary feminist rhetorics the volume encourages students and instructors to examine their identities as scholars of rhetoric and composition and to question how and why revision is taught. Jung analyzes feminist texts to identify a revisionary rhetoric that is at its core most concerned with creating a space in which to engage productively with issues of difference This synthesis of feminist theory and revision studies yields a pedagogically useful definition of feminist rhetoric through which Jung examines the insights afforded by multigenre texts in various related contexts the academic essay the discipline of rhetoric and composition studies feminist composition and the subfields of English studies including rhetoric and composition literature and creative writing Jung illustrates how multigenre texts demand innovative methods of inquiry because they do not fit the conventions of any single genre Because genre is inextricably tied to the construction of social identity she explains multigenre texts also offer a means for understanding and revising disciplinary identity Boldly making a case for the revisionary power of multigenre texts Jung retheorizes revision as a process of disrupting textual clarity so that differences can be identified contended with and perhaps understood Revisionary Rhetoric Feminist Pedagogy and Multigenre Texts makes great strides towards defining feminist rhetoric and ascertaining how revision can be theorized not just practiced Jung also provides a multigenre epilogue that explores the usefulness of reconceiving revision as a progression towards wholeness rather than perfection

BOOK JACKET Off the Bus, into a Supercar! Baybars Altuntas,2014-11-19 I did it my way So can you As the son of a teacher and a retired army officer I would never in my wildest dreams have thought that the company I started without a penny to my name would become a multi mullion dollar business Or that the president of the United States of America the land of entrepreneurs would invite me to the White House to talk about entrepreneurship or that the Turkish prime minister who leads the 16th largest economy in the world would hand me a letter to deliver in person to President Obama I couldnt have imagined that I would one day be on CNN International commenting on President Obamas Washington summit or that I would be one of the 110 Dragons from 22 countries on the most important entrepreneurship TV show in the world Dragons Den Shark Tank in the US I had no money no one to help me or back me up in the beginning but all those things really happened I wholeheartedly believe that our beautiful world is one where dreams are capable of becoming reality so long as we work towards the realization of those dreams I wish for everyone to be able to look at the world in the same optimistic way as I do to see the bigger picture in the same frame If the son of a teacher and army officer can find success then I am sure that you can too but probably much more easily I am confident that once you start reading this book you won't be able to put it down I Remember Janie Goodson Cobb, 2008-08-20 This book which is written in two parts is a true story of loss perseverance redemption and triumph It chronicles the life of a young girl from earliest childhood to adulthood and focuses on her hard times and traumatizing experiences after the death of her mother and grandmother at the age of 12 and 13 It expounds on the various mistakes she made during and after her teen years tells how she was able to overcome obstacles and turn failure into success A return to the church brought about a transformation in her life where she eventually discovered real love and happiness in her future husband This book will be of interest to young and older readers because the youth population will learn to avoid bad choices yet realize that they can be overcome and a good or better life can prevail The older population will find affirmation that no matter how deeply in love a couple may be failure to maintain good communication concerning issues that affect both persons lives will create a breakdown in the relationship But in the end prayer and forgiveness can heal all hurts and love will endure MSRO Smart Notes: Class 12 CBSE Literature MSRO CLASSROOM, 2025-08-30 MSRO Smart Notes Class 12 CBSE Literature Ace the Boards Learn Smart Score High About the Book Covering the full Flamingo and Vistas syllabus this book delivers over 500 pages of focused summaries in depth analysis question banks and writing strategies to help you master the exam with confidence What Makes It Stand Out Answers curated by a subject specialist Clear strategies on how to present answers that fetch marks Natural elevated language tailored for board success Chapter wise summaries tone and theme breakdowns Vocabulary idiomatic expressions and usage insights Extract based questions MCQs and value based formats Simplified NCERT Q A with smart writing frameworks Exam Oriented Analysis Chapter Summary Theme Character Sketches Line by Line Interpretation Historical Political Context Vocabulary Idiomatic Expressions Literary Devices Concept Based Multiple Choice Questions Factual Inference Based Literary Device Based Extract Based Assertion Reason Types NCERT Questions Solved Short Long Answers Value Based Analytical Responses Ideal For CBSE Class 12 Literature Revision Pre Boards Final Exams Also great for teachers tutors competitive exam aspirants Comprehensive Practical Exam Ready all in one powerful book The Beatles Anthology The Beatles, 2000-09 Includes primary source material in the form of photographs transcripts etc I Know Me Marian Olivia Heath Griffin, 2020-10-30 It seems like yesterday that things that were happening in my life over seventy years ago demands that I trust in the loving purpose of a Sovereign God I have learned to trust that He is in control especially when life seems out of control I am prospering and am always hopeful because as a blessed African American woman I accept my responsibility to give back to the people in this country as much as it has given to me I will always acknowledge my roots as they are more important than ever I am an empty vessel but am versed with a spiritual being to complete a mission for God And I have an angel or angels who have guided me all my days They are sent from my Sovereign Creator Identity and Diversity Maud Blair, Janet Holland, Sue Sheldon, 1995-01-01 First published in 1995 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Handbook of Classroom Management Carolyn M. Evertson, Carol S. Weinstein, 2013-10-31 Classroom management is a topic of enduring concern for teachers administrators and the public It consistently ranks as the first or second most serious educational problem in the eyes of the general public and beginning teachers consistently rank it as their most pressing concern during their early teaching years Management problems continue to be a major cause of teacher burnout and job dissatisfaction Strangely despite this enduring concern on the part of educators and the public few researchers have chosen to focus on classroom management or to identify themselves with this critical field The Handbook of Classroom Management has four primary goals 1 to clarify the term classroom management 2 to demonstrate to scholars and practitioners that there is a distinct body of knowledge that directly addresses teachers managerial tasks 3 to bring together disparate lines of research and encourage conversations across different areas of inquiry and 4 to promote a vigorous agenda for future research in this area To this end 47 chapters have been organized into 10 sections each chapter written by a recognized expert in that area Cutting across the sections and chapters are the following themes First positive teacher student relationships are seen as the very core of effective classroom management Second classroom management is viewed as a social and moral curriculum Third external reward and punishment strategies are not seen as optimal for promoting academic and social emotional growth and self regulated behavior Fourth to create orderly productive environments teachers must take into account student characteristics such as age developmental level race ethnicity cultural background socioeconomic status and ableness Like other research handbooks the Handbook of Classroom Management provides an indispensable reference volume for scholars teacher educators in service practitioners and the academic libraries serving these audiences It is also appropriate for graduate courses wholly or partly devoted to the study of classroom management The Disobedient Generation Alan Sica, Stephen P. Turner, 2005-12-15 The Disobedient Generation collects newly written autobiographies by an international cross section of well known sociologists all of them children of the 60s It illuminates the human experience of living through that decade as apprentice scholars and activists encountering the issues of class race the Establishment the decline of traditional religion feminism war and the sexual revolution In each case the interlinked crises of young adulthood rapid change and nascent professional careers shaped this generation s private and public selves
