Anarchist Pedagogies Robert H. Haworth, 2012-08-01 Education is a challenging subject for anarchists Many are critical about working within a state run education system that is embedded in hierarchical standardized and authoritarian structures Numerous individuals and collectives envision the creation of counterpublics or alternative educational sites as possible forms of resistance while other anarchists see themselves as saboteurs within the public arena believing that there is a need to contest dominant forms of power and educational practices from multiple fronts Of course if anarchists agree that there are no blueprints for education the question remains in what dynamic and creative ways can we construct nonhierarchical anti authoritarian mutual and voluntary educational spaces Contributors to this edited volume engage readers in important and challenging issues in the area of anarchism and education From Francisco Ferrer s modern schools in Spain and the Work People s College in the United States to contemporary actions in developing free schools in the U K and Canada to direct action education such as learning to work as a street medic in the protests against neoliberalism the contributors illustrate the importance of developing complex connections between educational theories and collective actions Anarchists activists and critical educators should take these educational experiences seriously as they offer invaluable examples for potential teaching and learning environments outside of authoritarian and capitalist structures Major themes in the volume include learning from historical anarchist experiments in education ways that contemporary anarchists create dynamic and situated learning spaces and finally critically reflecting on theoretical frameworks and educational practices Contributors include David Gabbard Jeffery Shantz Isabelle Fremeaux John Jordan Abraham P DeLeon Elsa Noterman Andre Pusey Matthew Weinstein Alex Khasnabish and many others

Parenting without God Dan Arel, 2019-11-01 Children inevitably turn to their parents for more than just food and security equally important are assurance recognition and interpretation of life A child develops best in an environment where creativity and discovery are unimpeded by the artificial restrictions of blind faith and dogmatic belief Parenting without God is for parents and future parents who lack belief in a god and are seeking guidance on raising freethinkers and social justice aware children in a nation where public dialogue has been controlled by the Christian Right Dan Arel activist and critically acclaimed author has penned a magnificently practical guide to help parents provide their children with the intellectual tools for standing up to attempts at religious proselytism whether by teachers coaches friends or other family members Parenting without God is also for the parent activist who is trying to make the world a better place for all children by first educating their own children about racism sexism and all forms of discrimination that serve as barriers to the fundamentals of human dignity and democracy It s for parents who wish for their children to question everything and to learn how to reach their own conclusions based on verifiable evidence and reason Above all Arel makes the penetrating argument that parents should lead by example both by speaking candidly about the importance of secularism and by living an openly and unabashedly secular life Parenting without God is written with humility compassion and understanding Dan Arel's writing conveys the unmistakable impression of a loving father dedicated to redefining the role of parenthood so that it also includes the vitally important task of nurturing every child's latent impulse for freedom and autonomy This second edition has been expanded with new material from the author Not in My Library! Sanford Berman, 2013-08-14 Foreword by Mitch Freedman a reprinted Counterpoise interview and 45 of Sanford Berman's U L columns dealing with book burning genocide government secrecy and repression cataloging indexing classism self censorship and free speech for library staff et cetera Index by Chris Dodge Secular Music and Sacred Theology Tom Beaudoin, 2013-05-01 When the basic conceptions of the world held by whole generations in the West are formed by popular culture and in particular by the music that serves as its soundtrack can theology remain unchanged The authors of the essays in this important volume insist that the answer is no These gifted theologians help readers make sense of what happens to religious experience in a world heavily influenced by popular media culture a world in which songs musicians and celebrities influence our individual and collective imaginations about how we might live Readers will consider the theological relationship between music and the creative process investigate ways that music helps create communities of heightened moral consciousness and explore the theological significance of songs Contributors to this fascinating collection include David Dalt Maeve Heaney Daniel White Hodge Michael J Iafrate Jeffrey F Keuss Mary McDonough Gina Messina Dysert Christian Scharen Myles Werntz Tom Beaudoin is associate professor of theology at Fordham University specializing in practical theology His books include Witness to Dispossession The Vocation of a Postmodern Theologian Consuming Faith Integrating Who We Are with What We Buy and Virtual Faith The Irreverent Spiritual Faith of Generation X He has given nearly 200 papers lectures or presentations on religion and culture over the last thirteen years He has been playing bass in rock bands since 1986 and directs the Rock and Theology Project for Liturgical Press www.rockandtheology.com
