My Volunteering Experience

As instructed in class, we were assigned to volunteer at any facility in order to obtain improvements with our communication skills. I chose to volunteer at The Ronald McDonald's House of Charities because it provides a place for immediate family members who have their children in any of the hospitals in Amarillo, TX. The House of Charities provide safety and comfort for families with children that are seeking any medical treatment. There are qualifications needed in order to stay at the Ronald McDonalds house. Family members can qualify if they are out of town and they can donate as little as twenty dollars or sometimes at no cost. When I went to volunteer at the Ronald McDonald's House, everyone was so warm and welcoming. They were very thankful that I was willing to volunteer and help them. My duties were to sweep and mop the floors as well as watering the plants. Luckily, I had a previous cleaning experience that made it pretty easy to clean The House of Charities, I managed to finish pretty matter. I surprisingly didn't get tired, I felt proud to help people that needed assistance and also an organization that gave so much to those in need. Their purpose of Ronald McDonald House is to make it easy for families far from home that have their children hospitalized. While I volunteer I felt that the Ronald McDonald House believe by provide families the help needed would give them the relief and would make them comfortable by staying there. Also, families can provide more love when they are cared for and comforted by a little bit of normal in a chaos experience. On the other hand, The House of Charities creates an atmosphere like home and cozyness for families. The Ronald McDonald's House of Charities provides families with a healthy, home-cooked meal after a long and sometimes could be an stressful day at the hospital . Volunteers would plan the menu to prepared meals at the House of Charities. The families that stay there would never have to worry about preparing there meals. There is no cost for families that eat there, pretty much everything is provided by the House of Charities. The Ronald McDonald House has an enormous kitchen with beautiful countertop. On the counters it is a variety of food such as snacks, cookies, breads, ect. Families can come and take anything they would like to eat whenever they are hungry. The volunteer have such a bless heart and they make in impact in each family while their children stay at the hospital. I founded fascinating when a person told me that toys are donated to the Ronald McDonald from different organization and families. What a magical magical moment could be to see that the House of Charities delivered the toys to the childrens that are hospitalized.

The Community College Writer Howard Tinberg, Jean-Paul Nadeau, 2010-02-18 While there have been several studies of writing programs at larger baccalaureate institutions the community college classroom has often been overlooked Authors Howard Tinberg and Jean Paul Nadeau fill this gap with The Community College Writer a systematic and unique case study of first semester writing students at a community college Drawing on surveys interviews and samples of classroom assignments Tinberg and Nadeau use their research at one community college to reach out to instructors throughout the nation fostering communication between community college faculty members in the effort to establish full fledged writing programs geared toward student success At the heart of the book are the voices of the students themselves as they discuss both their teachers expectations and their own Through a series of case studies the authors reveal the challenges students face as budding writers and their firsthand experiences with writing programs at the community college level With this informative study Tinberg and Nadeau seek not only to encourage dialogue between student and teacher or community college instructors but to expand the conversation about program improvement to include both two and four year colleges bringing composition faculty together in an effort to improve writing programs in all schools Included in the volume are seven appendices including surveys and interviews with faculty and students making The Community College Writer a comprehensive and practical guide to tackling the issues facing writing programs and instructors

Working en comunidad Elena Foulis, Stacey Alex, Glenn A. Martínez, 2024-09-10 Working in community is critical to several fields Working en comunidad focuses on service learning and Latina o e communities within a variety of institutional contexts It provides a practical framework grounded in theoretical approaches that center Latina o e experiences as foundational to understanding how to prepare students to work in the community and en comunidad The volume tackles three major themes ethical approaches to working with Latina o e communities within language courses and beyond preparing Latina o e students for working with their own communities in different environments and ensuring equitable practices and building relationships that are mutually beneficial for students and community members The editors forward two central arguments 1 Equitable community engagement in higher education is a reflective and reciprocal process that develops empathy and personal and professional growth in students and 2 service learning is most transformative when it explicitly guides students and the community to build cultural humility and recognize Latina/o experiences and agency as foundational to the learning process Many of the contributors and editors are Latina/o identified scholars practitioners and researchers who lend a rich body of experience and a personal dedication to this work They present distinct approaches and geographies as well as range of institutions to offer a wide scope of engaged work that builds on the concept of comunidad to advance a critical new conceptual framework of equitable education and racial justice Contributors Stacey Alex Elena Foulis Christina Garcia Catherine Komisaruk Kelly Lowther Pereira Glenn Martinez Marisa Luisa Parra Velasco The Complete Guide to Writing Effective College Applications & Essays for Admission and Scholarships Kathy Lynn Hahn, Colleen M.
