How Many Interviews Does Autozone Do:

Speaking Truths Valerie Chepp, 2022-02-11 The twenty first century is already riddled with protests demanding social justice and in every instance young people are leading the charge But in addition to protesters who take to the streets with handmade placards are young adults who engage in less obvious change making tactics In Speaking Truths sociologist Valerie Chepp goes behind the scenes to uncover how spoken word poetry and young people s participation in it contributes to a broader understanding of contemporary social justice activism including this generation s attention to the political importance of identity well being and love Drawing upon detailed observations and in depth interviews Chepp tells the story of a diverse group of young adults from Washington D C who use spoken word to create a more just and equitable world Outlining the contours of this approach she interrogates spoken word activism s emphasis on personal storytelling and truth the strategic uses of aesthetics and emotions to politically engage across difference and the significance of healing in sustainable movements for change Weaving together their poetry and personally told stories Chepp shows how poets tap into the beautiful emotional personal and therapeutic features of spoken word to empathically connect with others advance intersectional and systemic analyses of inequality and make social justice messages relatable across a diverse public By creating allies and forging connections based on friendship professional commitments lived experiences emotions artistic kinship and political views this activist approach is highly integrated into the everyday lives of its practitioners online and face to face Chepp argues that spoken word activism is a product of and a call to action against the neoliberal era in which poets have come of age characterized by widening structural inequalities and increasing economic and social vulnerability She illustrates how this deeply personal and intimate activist approach borrows from builds upon and diverges from previous social movement paradigms Spotlighting the complexity and mutual influence of modern day activism and the world in which it unfolds Speaking Truths contributes to our understanding of contemporary social change making and how neoliberalism has shaped this political generation s experiences with social injustice Decisions and Orders of the National Labor Relations Board United States. National Labor Relations Board, 2008 CIO , 2007-10-01 Decisions and Orders of the National Labor Relations Board , 2009-09-02 Includes the decisions and orders of the Board a table of cases and a cross reference index from the advance sheet numbers to the volume page numbers Corporate Social Irresponsibility Agata Stachowicz-Stanusch, Wolfgang Amann, Gianluigi Mangia, 2017-03-01 In a modern world in which one can observe managerial and investors behaviors characterized by high risk short term orientation moral hazard and speculation there is a need to form a new ethical paradigm to drive a more ethical oriented education and a substantial change to norms regulating markets and business behavior to sensitize investors and financial practitioners so that humanity can evolve in a sustainable way Therefore the main question we are striving to answer throughout the book Organizational Social Irresponsibility individual behaviors and organizational practices is the following Do individual behaviors influence organizational socially irresponsible practices Each separate chapter aims to find an answer to the above question The book is divided into three parts first The dark side of organizational behaviors second Individual skills and the workplace and third Organizational politics practices and tools This book is authored by a range of authors from all over the world They provide us with several theoretical and practical contributions into the topic of organizational social irresponsibility and individual behavior facing different aspects e g workplace wellness decision making diversity management We hope it will be useful for both business and academia and it will help to shape reflective socially responsible managers of the future Duped Saul

Kassin,2022-06-15 Why do people confess to crimes they did not commit And surely those cases must be rare In fact it happens all the time in police stations workplaces public schools and the military Psychologist Saul Kassin the world s leading expert on false confessions explains how interrogators trick innocent people into confessing and then how the criminal justice system deludes us into believing these confessions Duped reveals how innocent men women and children intensely stressed and befuddled by lawful weapons of psychological interrogation are induced into confession no matter how horrific the crime By featuring riveting case studies highly original research work by the Innocence Project and quotes from real life exonerees Kassin tells the story of how false confessions happen and how they corrupt forensics witnesses and other evidence force guilty pleas and follow defendants for their entire lives even after they are exonerated by DNA Starting in the 1980 s Dr Kassin pioneered the scientific study of interrogations and confessions Since then he has been on the forefront of research and advocacy for those wrongfully convicted by police induced false confessions Examining famous cases like the Central Park jogger case and Amanda Knox case as well as stories of ordinary innocent people trapped into confession Dr Kassin exposes just how widespread this problem is Concluding with actionable solutions and proposals for legislative reform Duped shows why the stigma of confession persists and how we can reform the criminal justice system to make it stop 11 in '11 Benjamin Hochman,Chris Carpenter,Jason Motte,2021-04-27 11 in 11 is a thoroughly reported chronicle of an unparalleled season packed with interviews with key players team executives broadcasters and more Of the 11 World Series titles the St Louis Cardinals have won in their formidable history 2011 s victory stands out as something different something magical It was the work of a team that seemingly had no business even playing in October yet one that stared down defeat over and over again refusing to back down until the trophy was theirs St Louis Post Dispatch columnist Benjamin Hochman offers on the ground and behind the scenes perspective as he brings to life a cast of characters including Albert Pujols in his final year as a Card team ace Chris Carpenter Yadier Molina showing his might both behind and at the plate and of course the unlikely hero David Freese Go inside the front office to see how this roster was constructed relive the blistering final stretch of the regular season which saw the team winning 20 of its last 28 games experience the palpable energy of Busch Stadium during Game 6 where Hochman watched enthralled as a fan This is the definitive account of a championship run no Cardinals fan will ever forget Food for Thought Colleen M. Heflin,Madonna Harrington Meyer,2025-09-05 While food insecurity among households with children often makes the headlines a quieter issue that receives much less attention is the food insecurity faced by older adults In 2023 over nine percent of Americans age sixty and older were food insecure Without policy intervention that number is only expected to grow as the U S population continues to age In Food for Thought social policy scholar Colleen M Heflin and sociologist Madonna Harrington Meyer illuminate the challenges faced by food insecure older adults Through analysis of national data sets and interviews with lower income older adults Heflin and Harrington Meyer describe why many older adults do not have enough money to afford food and other essentials As a result of chronic economic disadvantage food insecure older adults are often forced to make budget trade offs between food and other expenses In these trade offs food typically ranks below housing and energy costs and competes with other household bills such as medical costs transportation and phone and internet coverage While finances play a large role nonfinancial factors such as poor physical cognitive and mental health access to healthy food and transportation challenges also contribute to food insecurity in old age In the face of these difficulties food insecure older adults may go hungry skip meals or eat unhealthy foods to help make ends meet While SNAP and community based programs such as food pantries and home delivered meals are intended to help address the issue of food insecurity they are typically inadequate to address the needs of food insecure older adults SNAP has enrollment and maintenance procedures that are particularly difficult for older adults to navigate pays out an insufficient amount of money to cover food costs and varies greatly by state Availability of community programs varies by municipality often lacks nutritious foods that are complementary to health conditions common among older adults and can be difficult to access due to a lack of reliable transportation disability or cost Heflin and Harrington Meyer advocate for addressing all the issues that increase older adults risk of food insecurity not just financial barriers They suggest updating food insecurity screening tools to include these factors increasing SNAP benefits and income support for older adults and other policies to help combat food insecurity in older adults Food for Thought highlights the increasingly important issue of food insecurity in old age and lays bare the overlooked challenges faced by food insecure older adults
