How To Report A Fake Marriage:

Cities and Social Movements Walter J. Nicholls, Justus Uitermark, 2016-12-27 Through historical and comparative research on the immigrant rights movements of the United States France and the Netherlands Cities and Social Movements examines how small resistances against restrictive immigration policies do or don't develop into large and sustained mobilizations Presents a comprehensive comparative analysis of immigrant rights politics in three countries over a period of five decades providing vivid accounts of the processes through which immigrants activists challenged or confirmed the status quo Theorizes movements from the bottom up presenting an urban grassroots account in order to identify how movement networks emerge or fall apart Provides a unique contribution by examining how geography is implicated in the evolution of social movements discovering how and why the networks constituting movements grow by tracing where they develop Demonstrates how efforts to enforce national borders trigger countless resistances and shows how some environments provide the relational opportunities to nurture these small resistances into sustained mobilizations Written to appeal to a broad audience of students scholars policy makers and activists without sacrificing theoretical rigor Argonauts of West Africa Apostolos Andrikopoulos, 2023-05-10 Argonauts of West Africa examines the paradoxes of kinship in the lives of unauthorized African migrants as they struggle for mobility employment and citizenship in Europe In a rapidly changing and highly precarious context migrants turn to kinship in search of security stability and predictability Through the exchange of identity documents assistance in obtaining such documentation marriage or cohabitation new kinship dynamics are continually made and remade to navigate the shifting demands of European states These new kinship relations however often prove unreliable taking on new unexpected dynamics in the face of codependency they become more difficult to control than those who entered into such relations could have imagined Through unusually close ethnographic work in West African migrant communities in Amsterdam Apostolos Andrikopoulos reveals unseen dynamics of siblinghood through shared papers the tensions of race and gender that develop in mutually beneficial marriages and the vast informal networks of people information and documentation on which migrants rely Throughout Andrikopoulos demonstrates how inequality exclusionary practices and the changing policies of an often violent state demand new forms of kinship to successfully navigate complex migration routes Annual Report New York Probation and Protective Association, 1912 The Concept of Marriages of Convenience in EU Free Movement Law Aleksandra Ancite-Jepifánova, 2024-10-21 Over the past two decades EU Member States have regularly complained about the perceived abuse of EU law via marriages of convenience allegedly contracted between mobile EU citizens and third country nationals During the pre Brexit years the UK had been voicing particularly strong concerns about the issue which ultimately resulted in regulatory changes both at the EU and national level In this book Aleksandra Ancite Jepifanova pursues two interrelated aims First she evaluates the compatibility of EU level measures addressing marriages of convenience with EU free movement law by focusing on the Citizenship Directive Second she examines the regulation of the issue in UK law in so far as it concerns the residence rights of EU citizens and their family members both pre and post Brexit Impure Migration Mir Yarfitz,2019-04-04 Introduction White slave wives on the road to Buenos Aires White slaves and dark masters Jewish traffic in women Marriage as ruse or migration strategy Immigrant mutual aid among pimps The impure shape Jewish Buenos Aires Conclusion After the Varsovia Society Making and Faking Kinship Caren Freeman,2011-11-22 In the years leading up to and directly following rapprochement with China in 1992 the South Korean government looked to ethnic Korean Chos njok brides and laborers from northeastern China to restore productivity to its industries and countryside South Korean officials and the media celebrated these overtures not only as a pragmatic solution to population problems but also as a patriotic project of reuniting ethnic Koreans after nearly fifty years of Cold War separation As Caren Freeman s fieldwork in China and South Korea shows the attempt to bridge the geopolitical divide in the name of Korean kinship proved more difficult than any of the parties involved could have imagined Discriminatory treatment artificially suppressed wages clashing gender logics and the criminalization of so called runaway brides and undocumented workers tarnished the myth of ethnic homogeneity and exposed the contradictions at the heart of South Korea s transnational kin making project Unlike migrant brides who could acquire citizenship migrant workers were denied the rights of long term settlement and stringent quotas restricted their entry As a result many Chos njok migrants arranged paper marriages and fabricated familial ties to South Korean citizens to bypass the state apparatus of border control Making and Faking Kinship depicts acts of counterfeit kinship false documents and the leaving behind of spouses and children as strategies implemented by disenfranchised people to gain mobility within the region s changing political economy

Sin in the Second City Karen Abbott, 2007-07-10 Step into the perfumed parlors of the Everleigh Club the most famous brothel in American history and the catalyst for a culture war that rocked the nation Operating in Chicago s notorious Levee district at the dawn of the last century the Club s proprietors two aristocratic sisters named Minna and Ada Everleigh welcomed moguls and actors senators and athletes foreign dignitaries and literary icons into their stately double mansion where thirty stunning Everleigh butterflies awaited their arrival Courtesans named Doll Suzy Poon Tang and Brick

Top devoured raw meat to the delight of Prince Henry of Prussia and recited poetry for Theodore Dreiser Whereas lesser madams pocketed most of a harlot s earnings and kept a whipper on staff to mete out discipline the Everleighs made sure their girls dined on gourmet food were examined by an honest physician and even tutored in the literature of Balzac Not everyone appreciated the sisters attempts to elevate the industry Rival Levee madams hatched numerous schemes to ruin the Everleighs including an attempt to frame them for the death of department store heir Marshall Field Jr But the sisters most daunting foes were the Progressive Era reformers who sent the entire country into a frenzy with lurid tales of white slavery the allegedly rampant practice of kidnapping young girls and forcing them into brothels This furor shaped America s sexual culture and had repercussions all the way to the White House including the formation of the Federal Bureau of Investigation With a cast of characters that includes Jack Johnson John Barrymore John D Rockefeller Jr William Howard Taft Hinky Dink Kenna and Al Capone Sin in the Second City is Karen Abbott s colorful nuanced portrait of the iconic Everleigh sisters their world famous Club and the perennial clash between our nation s hedonistic impulses and Puritanical roots Culminating in a dramatic last stand between brothel keepers and crusading reformers Sin in the Second City offers a vivid snapshot of America s journey from Victorian era propriety to twentieth century modernity Contested Embrace Jaeun Kim,2016-07-20

Scholars have long examined the relationship between nation states and their internal others such as immigrants and ethnoracial minorities Contested Embrace shifts the analytic focus to explore how a state relates to people it views as external members such as emigrants and diasporas Specifically Jaeun Kim analyzes disputes over the belonging of Koreans in Japan and China focusing on their contested relationship with the colonial and postcolonial states in the Korean peninsula Extending the constructivist approach to nationalisms and the culturalist view of the modern state to a transnational context Contested Embrace illuminates the political and bureaucratic construction of ethno national populations beyond the territorial boundary of the state Through a comparative analysis of transborder membership politics in the colonial Cold War and post Cold War periods the book shows how the configuration of geopolitics bureaucratic techniques and actors agency shapes the making unmaking and remaking of transborder ties Kim demonstrates that being a homeland state or a member of the transborder nation is a precarious arduous and revocable political achievement
