Program Report United States Travel Service,1974      International Perspectives on Motivation E. Ushioda,2013-04-23
Bringing together motivation related practical concerns and debates from diverse international contexts and educational settings where English is learned this book shows how locally produced insights and issues can have wider global significance resonating with the experiences and concerns of English teachers and learners across the world      Program Report of the United States Travel Service United States Travel Service,1970      World of Warcraft Daniel Lisi,2016-06-20 At more than 100 million user accounts created and over 10 billion made it is not only the most subscribed MMORPG in the world but the highest grossing video game of all time Ten years after its launch Blizzard Entertainment's World of Warcraft is less a game and more a world unto itself and it's a world Daniel Lisi knows well More time in his high school years was spent in Azeroth than in his hometown of Irvine CA a home he happened to share with Blizzard itself Now that Lisi has founded his own game development studio WoW remains his most powerful example of just how immersive and consuming a game can be Based on research interviews and the author's own experience in a hardcore raiding guild Lisi's book examines WoW's origins the addictive power of its gameplay loop the romances WoW has both cemented and shattered the enabling power of anonymity and the thrill of conquering BlizzCon with guildmates you've known for years and just met for the first time      Expect Us Jessica L. Beyer,2014-07-03 People use online social forums for all sorts of reasons including political conversations regardless of the site's main purpose But what leads some of these people to take their online political activity into the offline world of activism In Expect Us Jessica L Beyer looks at political consciousness and action in four communities each born out of chaotic online social spaces that millions of individuals enter spend time in and exit moment by moment Anonymous 4chan IGN World of Warcraft and The Pirate Bay None of these sites began as places for political organization per se but visitors to each have used them as places for political engagement to one degree or another Beyer explains the puzzling emergence of political engagement in these disparate social spaces and offers reasons for their varied capacity to generate political activism Her comparative ethnography of these four online communities demonstrates that the technological organization of space itself has a strong role in determining the possibility of political mobilization Overall she shows that political mobilization rises when a site provides high levels of anonymity low levels of formal regulation and minimal access to small group interaction Furthermore her findings reveal that young people are more politically involved than much of the civic engagement literature suggests Expect Us offers surprising and compelling insights for anyone interested in understanding which factors and online environments lead to the greatest amount of impact offline

Managing Humans Michael Lopp, 2007-10-18 Managing Humans is a selection of the best essays from Michael Lopp's web site Rands in Repose Drawing on Lopp's management experiences at Apple Netscape Symantec and Borland this book is full of stories based on companies in the Silicon Valley where people have been known to yell at each other It is a place full of dysfunctional bright people who are in an incredible hurry to find the next big thing so they can strike it rich and then do it all over again Among these people are managers a strange breed of people who through a mystical organizational ritual have been given power over your future and your bank account Whether you're an aspiring manager a current manager or just wondering what the heck a manager does all day there is a story in this book that will speak to you It's Your Children's Bureau Dorothy Edith Bradbury, Helen Leland Witmer, United States. Children's Bureau, 1955 The Atlas of Heart Disease and Stroke Judith Mackay, George A. Mensah, 2004 Heart disease and strokes are currently the leading cause of death in all developed countries and in most developing countries resulting in one third of all deaths globally in 2003 This publication explores a range of issues relating to this increasingly urgent global health problem using text colour charts maps and graphics Topics covered include different types of cardiovascular diseases including rheumatic heart disease key risk factors including smoking obesity physical inactivity high cholesterol levels and diabetes risks factors relating to women childhood and youth the global burden of coronary heart disease and stroke and associated economic costs medical research and funding issues prevention in personal and public health terms treatment options health education national policies and legislation to address prevention and control future predictions chronology of key developments in knowledge of cardiovascular disease and world data tables Reports on Labour and Social Conditions in Germany Tariff Reform League, London, Tariff Reform League, 1910 From Program to Product Rocky Smolin, 2008-05-31 Many would be software entrepreneurs with expertise in many fields attempt to turn a homegrown application one developed for use in their own business or profession into a commercial product Lack of knowledge experience or skills often prevents the idea from ever taking shape let alone achieving its potential Entering a new field to start a business leaves many developers unprepared and not even fully aware that it's something they know so little about They will also often have a job that conflicts with the time commitment required to market the program well enough for it to become a complete success Do you have an idea for a commercially viable software product or already have a product with the potential for dream financial rewards Would be software entrepreneurs must consult From Program to Product Turning Your Code into a Saleable Product written by software developer and entrepreneur Rocky Smolin for an indispensable roadmap to creating a commercially successful software product Smolin shares insights from his own experience and covers topics you may never anticipate but are vital to success like pricing documentation licensing and tracking customers Indians in Unexpected Places Philip Joseph Deloria, 2004 Despite the passage of time our vision of Native Americans remains locked up within powerful stereotypes That

s why some images of Indians can be so unexpected and disorienting What is Geronimo doing sitting in a Cadillac Why is an Indian woman in beaded buckskin sitting under a salon hairdryer Such images startle and challenge our outdated visions even as the latter continue to dominate relations between Native and non Native Americans Philip Deloria explores this cultural discordance to show how stereotypes and Indian experiences have competed for ascendancy in the wake of the military conquest of Native America and the nation s subsequent embrace of Native authenticity Rewriting the story of the national encounter with modernity Deloria provides revealing accounts of Indians doing unexpected things singing opera driving cars acting in Hollywood in ways that suggest new directions for American Indian history Focusing on the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries a time when according to most standard American narratives Indian people almost dropped out of history itself Deloria argues that a great many Indians engaged the very same forces of modernization that were leading non Indians to reevaluate their own understandings of themselves and their society He examines longstanding stereotypes of Indians as invariably violent suggesting that even as such views continued in American popular culture they were also transformed by the violence at Wounded Knee He tells how Indians came to represent themselves in Wild West shows and Hollywood films and also examines sports music and even Indian people s use of the automobile an ironic counterpoint to today s highways teeming with Dakota pick ups and Cherokee sport utility vehicles Throughout Deloria shows us anomalies that resist pigeonholing and force us to rethink familiar expectations Whether considering the Hollywood films of James Young Deer or the Hall of Fame baseball career of pitcher Charles Albert Bender he persuasively demonstrates that a significant number of Indian people engaged in modernity and helped shape its anxieties and its textures at the very moment they were being defined as primitive These secret histories Deloria suggests compel us to reconsider our own current expectations about what Indian people should be how they should act and even what they should look like More important he shows how such seemingly harmless even if unconscious expectations contribute to the racism and injustice that still haunt the experience of many Native American people today
