Stollwerck,2012-03-08 It was 0310 hours 3 10 a m civilian time when the Colonel heard someone beginning to stage a pre dawn assault on their hideout He had heard them and god damn it the sorry ass excuses for sentries that were stationed in the derelict metal sheds around the missile launch silo should have damn well heard them too Instead of the sounds of scorpions and rattle snakes that he was disturbing scurrying around in the cool sand of the abandoned shed over his shoulders and into the pockets of his fatigues he should be hearing the sounds of the stolen Humvees being started up After his men finished loading them with the military small arms weapons they had been stashing in some of the larger tin sheds that still had insulation on their inner walls and doors The men had orders to only start the Humvee s engines after first checking to ensure that they were muffled down as much as possible so it was possible that the NCO s in charge were just being overly cautious He imagined that the authority s SWAT teams would head west on a more or less straight line toward the gang s hideout A determination of how the authorities had zeroed in on the location of their hideout would be evaluated and dealt with later He figured the cops would react as most infantry units would Plan A backed up by a team or so from the GCB and the way the colonel s luck was running probably one or more FBI HRT teams However his team would be following Plan B to escape and evade fleeing due south until they hit Highway 159 and following it until they hit Highway 160 There they would split up the Green team in their two wheel capable vehicles heading northwest as fast as they could go on the road until they got to Pahrump Nevada and Blue team their four wheelers would double back and ambush the cop s Zebra team on its right flank following which they would break off contact and retreat into the inhospitable badlands of the Red Rock Recreation Area

Red Flag Kernan Chaisson, 2014-06-20 Red Flag a unique air warfare training center in Nevada has been a leading contributor to U S air supremacy for the last quarter century Here America s fighter pilots have honed their skills against the most dangerous threats potential enemies have to offer In other even more secretive areas such as Area 51 revolutionary new weapons have been developed and tested When Red Flag emerged from the shadows descriptions have concentrated on the aircraft their pilots and the missions flown over the desert range Now for the first time this book looks at what the Red Flag training facility is actually like how the remarkable equipment there works and what it was like to serve at this unique technical wonderland Written by a leading electronics and radar systems expert who took a prominent role in designing the instrumentation that makes Red Flag unique this book tells us not only what Red Flag has achieved but how pilots operators and electronic engineers combined to win America s wars in the air

The Lives of Guns Jonathan Obert, Andrew Poe, Austin Sarat, 2018-09-03 Guns have never been as prevalent in American culture as they are at this moment Most contemporary conversations on guns either highlight the gun as just a tool used in mass killings or a right to be fiercely defended eventually whatever progress these debates foster in the public conversation tend to halt altogether once the old clich guns don t kill people people kill people is trotted out These gun control and gun violence discussions take the gun as passive object ignoring the changing effects and the very agency that guns may deploy as politicized objects What happens if we reset the conversation and admit that guns and not the people behind them kill people The Lives of Guns offers a new and compelling way of thinking about the role of the gun in our social and political lives In gathering ideas from law science studies sociology and politics each chapter turns the stale standard gun conversations around by investigating the gun as an object with agency In approaching guns from a technological perspective down to the very science of how they are created and how they fire The Lives of Guns takes up a number of questions such as How does the presence of these objects shape civic ideology What does it mean to develop and care for gun and gun accessories technology What do guns mean to those who build them versus those who fight for and against them What could happen when drone technology meets gun technology In bringing together fresh perspectives from leading lawyers political scientists and historians The Lives of Guns promises to move the gun debate forward by opening up new ways of thinking about these issues and broadening the scope of these perennial debates
