Dafoe, 1963-01-01 Essential Readings in Canadian Constitutional Politics Peter H. Russell, Christian Leuprecht, 2011-01-01

Essential Readings in Canadian Constitutional Politics introduces students scholars and practitioners to classic authors and writings on the principles of the Canadian Constitution as well as to select contemporary material To complement rather than duplicate the state of the field it deals with the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms and with Canadian mega constitutional politics in passing only focusing instead on institutions federalism intergovernmental relations bilingualism and binationalism the judiciary minority rights and constitutional renewal Many of the selections reverberate well beyond Canada's borders making this volume an unrivalled resource for anyone interested in constitutional governance and democratic politics in diverse societies Canadian Magazine of Politics, Science, Art & Literature, 1923 Canadian History: Confederation to the present Martin Brook Taylor, Doug Owram, 1994-01-01 In these two volumes which replace the Reader's Guide to Canadian History experts provide a select and critical guide to historical writing about pre and post Confederation Canada with an emphasis on the most recent scholarship Cover LAURIER A STUDY IN CANADIAN POLITICS JOHN WESLEY. DAFOE, 2018 A History of Canada Carl Frederick Wittke, 1928 Covers Canadian history from colonial beginnings to 1933 Special attention paid to interrelation of Canadian and U S history as well as Canada's role in development of British imperial policies Dominion Lands Policy Chester Bailey Martin, Dominion Lands Policy Chester Martin, 1973 The administration of public lands in the three prairie provinces of the Canadian West was the most important activity of the federal government for sixty years after the acquisition of the region in 1870 Martin studies the policies devised by politicians and officials for the disposal of public lands and the granting of concessions to individuals and business interests for exploiting the other natural resources of the area Scrum Wars Allan Levine, 1996-08-08 The image of the scrum a beleaguered politician surrounded by jockeying reporters is central to our perception of Ottawa The modern scrum began with the arrival of television but even in Sir John A Macdonald's day a century earlier reporters in the parliamentary press gallery had waited outside the prime minister's office pen in hand hoping for a quote for the next edition The scrum represents the test of wills the contest of wits and the battle for control that have characterized the relationship between Canadian prime ministers and journalists for more than 125 years Scrum Wars chronicles this relationship It is an anecdotal as well as analytical account showing how earlier prime ministers like Sir John A Macdonald and Sir Wilfrid Laurier were able to exercise control over what was written about their administrators while more recent leaders like John Diefenbaker Joe Clark John Turner and Brian Mulroney often found themselves at the mercy of intense media scrutiny and comment Political Corruption in Canada Kenneth M. Gibbons, Donald Cameron Rowat, 1976 Canadians assume that their politicians and institutions are relatively free of the corruption they associate with other nations The editors of this volume argue that this questionable supposition is based on scant evidence and very little serious analysis The Frontier and

Canadian Letters Wilfrid Eggleston, 1977-01-01 A blend of social sciences history and literary analyses of contemporaries such as A G Bailey and E K Brown this work was a turning point in Canadian literary criticism at the very time of an unprecedented expansion in Canadian studies

The Unfinished Programme of Democracy Richard Roberts, 2019-12-19 In The Unfinished Programme of Democracy Richard Roberts explores the intricate relationship between democratic ideals and their implementation in modern society Through a nuanced examination of historical and contemporary examples Roberts employs a blend of analytical rigor and literary finesse to dissect the often contradictory nature of democracy The book navigates various political theories offering critical insights into systemic failures and successes all while maintaining a compelling narrative style that encourages reflection and debate This text is positioned within a rich tradition of political literature resonating with both the Enlightenment thinkers and modern critics of democratic governance Richard Roberts a distinguished scholar in political philosophy has dedicated much of his career to the study of democratic theory and its real world implications His extensive background includes decades of teaching and research at leading institutions where he has engaged with both classical texts and contemporary issues This work is informed by his deep commitment to understanding democracy not merely as an ideal but as an ongoing project that requires vigilance and action from citizens I highly recommend The Unfinished Programme of Democracy to readers who seek a profound understanding of the challenges facing contemporary democracies It is an essential read for anyone interested in the intersection of philosophy and political practice offering both scholarly insights and practical considerations for revitalizing democratic engagement

The Power of the Pen Richard Clippingdale, 2012-08-18 Sir John Willison 1856 1927 lived and worked after the development of fast trains and the telegraph mostly before the widespread use of the telephone and almost entirely before radio mattered in news As a newspaperman though he was the most important Canadian journalist of his era

Political Memoir George W. Egerton, 1994 Wesley Wark and John Naylor analyse the proliferation of intelligence memoirs and government efforts to protect official secrets from the revelations of the candid memoirist The principal findings reached by the contributors in their study of this problematic but influential genre are set out by the editor in the concluding chapter

Priests and Politicians Paul Crunican, 1974-12-15 In the decade beginning with the hanging of Louis Riel in 1885 a series of radical and religious conflicts shook Canada culminating in the Manitoba school crisis of the 1890s By 1896 the focal point of the controversy was remedialism the attempt to have Roman Catholic school privileges in Manitoba restored by federal action against the provincial government The struggle over remedialism involved nearly every aspect of Canada's internal history Conservative Liberal federal provincial east west French English Catholic Protestant church state But illustrating as it does the complexity and sensitivity of the ground where politics and religion meet the election of 1896 has remained particularly fascinating for the degree to which Roman Catholic church authorities above all in Quebec entered the political process and were involved in the struggle to power of Wilfrid Laurier The school question and the struggle over remedialism present an illuminating case study of complex relations at a formative period in Canadian history This book focuses on the scene behind the scene seeking in particular to discover how Quebecers civil and ecclesiastical were reacting to a key problem of French and Catholic rights outside Quebec There is a strong emphasis on personal correspondence rather than on published statements and the author has marshalled a wide range of material that has never been fully exploited The story is told chronologically in order to assess the impact of major events as it developed Many of the classic questions of church state relations are brought into focus This is a story often of fear prejudice and ignorance but it is also a story of strength and resilience principle and faith Uniquely Canadian it tells us something important about the shift from the Canada of Macdonald to the Canada of Laurier Canadian Stationer and Office Appliance Journal ... ,1922 Jan 1930 Feb 1932 most issues include the Trade edition of the Canadian bookman Forging Alberta's Constitutional Framework Richard Connors,John M.
