There is a great reason that it is so important to have a "strong" character reference in a criminal case. It is the only way to prove that the defendant is a good person and that he or she is not a danger to the community. A strong character reference can also help to prove that the defendant is a good person and that he or she is not a danger to the community. A strong character reference can also help to prove that the defendant is a good person and that he or she is not a danger to the community.
