Connection	When you get ready for a party you make a list of things to do. Writers make a list of things to do before they can celebrate, too!
Teaching Point	Writers fix and fancy up their work.
Teaching Demonstration, guided practice, explanation with example, or inquiry	TW display a list of things to help the students get ready to celebrate (p.155)
Active Engagement	SW tell their partner their plan for the day.
Link	Writers will make a plan and work hard to fix and fancy up their work using the list to remind them what needs to be done.
Independent Practice/Conferencing: (30 minutes) Differentiation: All conferences are differentiated to meet the needs of the student(s) at the time. TW research, decide, teach, and link during conferences to review or extend (p.73, Guide to Common Core WWS)	SW work independently or with their partner while you conference with individual students or small groups. Allow students to lead small groups in a conference.
Mid Workshop teaching point (2 minutes) Support to keep writers working, check in referencing teaching point, give them something to try, point out something someone is doing to celebrate.	Celebrate amazing work that students are doing.
Sharing: (10 minutes)	SW practice reading their work aloud to prepare for reading it in front of an audience.

Marvelous Minilessons for Teaching Nonfiction Writing K-3 Lori Jamison Rog, 2015-12-11 Today's young learners know more about their world than ever before. This remarkable book shows that even our youngest writers can consider audience and purpose as they use nonfiction writing to document their ideas and share those ideas with others. But if students are going to be able to use writing to learn, they must have opportunities for learning to write. That's what this book is for. A wealth of hands-on minilessons offer strategies for writing informational, persuasive, and procedural text. Each lesson starts with a learning goal and follows an I do, we do, you do format. Teachers will find a wealth of ideas for guiding young students to write about what they know and care about.

Innovative Voices in Education Eileen Gale Kugler, 2012-01-31 Diverse schools offer enriched academic and social environments as students and families of different backgrounds and experiences provide a vibrant mosaic of insights, perspectives, and skills. To take advantage of the unique opportunities that diversity brings, schools must value and effectively connect with students and families of all backgrounds. Committed educators are taking on this challenge with gusto, engaging their diverse communities on a daily basis. This book highlights stories from around the world as innovative teachers, educational leaders, and community activists passionately share personal accounts of their successes, challenges, and lessons learned. These are unsung heroes doing vital work each day with little attention beyond the appreciation of their own school communities. The 17 chapters, each by different authors with unique experiences, provide insights, strategies, and new tools that will be of value to anyone who is concerned about improving education for all. These diverse innovative voices will inform, engage, and most of all, inspire you.
