

Election Campaign- The Issues

- Iraq- McCain had voted in favour of the Iraq War, whereas Obama had not. McCain's belief that the US should maintain a presence in Iraq after the War was also deeply unpopular.
- Bush's unpopularity- McCain struggled to distance himself from the Bush administration even though he was not part of the executive branch of government. He couldn't manage to try and win over independent voters without losing conservative members of his own party. Unlike previous campaigns, the incumbent Bush made no appearances throughout McCain's campaign.
- The economy – McCain seen to not be in touch with the issues of ordinary voters. Suspended campaigning to help craft the banking bailout but was said to have little or no impact.
- Change versus experience- Polls suggested that Obama's inexperience was less of an impediment than McCain's association with the Bush Administration. McCain's choice running mate was also judged to be unwise decision.

Campaign Financing in the United States August V. Anschutz,2002 Critics often call campaign finance the rotten apple of America s version of democracy Politicians retort that the system makes them do it One can t get elected without massive spending on television and image consultants image is after all what is being sold on television at the expense of substance and this spending equals big money The folks willing to part with said big money will only do so in exchange for something i e specific campaign or industry tax breaks effective control of foreign policy in certain parts of the world future direct access to the candidate and multitudinous other forms of gift reciprocation This book examines some of the laws which primarily serve as interesting but far from insurmountable hurdles for present and future lawmakers and some of the serious issues concerning a major problem whose solution is scheduled to arrive concurrently with the appearance of igloos at the equator Financing the 2000 Election David B.
