They must also be up to the task of the job while they remain in the university, have filled their brains up as well as their "info bank" with new scientific data, supplies themselves with programs, create their own scientific groups, change the program itself. Having said that, I would not like this party hall lecture to already be quickly a year, fully ten years, but this means nothing at all for me. I will continue to imagine "info bank" as the changing and living, not so much dead, but at least "dynamic" information that connects participants in the long program.
