Hotel Rwanda Study Guide Answers:

Emerging Evangelicals James S. Bielo, 2011 The Emerging Church movement developed in the mid 1990s among primarily white urban middle class pastors and laity who were disenchanted with America's conservative Evangelical sub culture It is a response to the increasing divide between conservative Evangelicals and concerned critics who strongly oppose what they consider overly slick corporate and consumerist versions of faith A core feature of their response is a challenge to traditional congregational models often focusing on new church plants and creating networks of related house churches Drawing on three years of ethnographic fieldwork James S Bielo explores the impact of the Emerging Church movement on American Evangelicals He combines ethnographic analysis with discussions of the movement's history discursive contours defining practices cultural logics and contentious interactions with conservative Evangelical critics to rethink the boundaries of Evangelical as a category Ultimately Bielo makes a novel contribution to our understanding of the important changes at work among American Protestants and illuminates how Emerging Evangelicals interact with the cultural conditions of modernity late modernity and visions of postmodern Christianity James S Bielo is Visiting Assistant Professor of Anthropology at Miami University in Oxford OH He is the author of Words Upon the Word An Ethnography of Evangelical Group Bible Study NYU Press and editor of The Social Life of Scriptures Cross cultural Perspectives on Biblicalism

Life in the Balance Leader's Guide Joni Eareckson Tada, 2010-08-11 Never before has it been so important for Christians to discover the answers God's Word holds to our culture's biggest ethical and social dilemmas Every day the 24 hour news cycle offers stories from around the world of unimaginable physical mental and emotional suffering Yet more often than not these stories and the underlying problems they represent are reported with no suggestions for resolution Can it really be true that there are no solutions to our world's biggest crises Joni Eareckson Tada refuses to believe it On her TV show she has interviewed scores of people who have faced life's toughest battles and emerged victorious In Life in the Balance Joni and her friends take on some of the most difficult issues covered by the evening news such as street violence abortion autism genocide and stem cell research But they don't just tell the stories they dig deep into the Word of God to find real and lasting solutions to so called unsolvable problems This workbook designed for participants in a Life in the Balance individual and group study will guide readers to apply the timeless yet timely truth of God's Word to society's greatest challenges
