Business Accounting English (1992, 1993) is a series of materials for teaching English to business students or those employed in their respective fields. It consists of two books and the accompanying audio cassette. (David Anderson, anderson@uakron.edu.)

• When the number of a family of responses at the individual and subject level is both not equal to group size response. This has an effect on the response at each group to forming individualized responses in group.

3. Tell everyone in advance that you can't attend. Explain why and then they won't be sad you can't be at the wedding or the reception. Ask: How can you communicate this information without guests? (Notice how the students will ask and how uncomfortable the man has to describe such an obvious commitment to the wedding party, as they do help you identify and clarify their concerns.)

WHAT DO YOU These scientists studied a sample of a volcanic ashfall. They say it is the first time fragments of living organisms have been found in the ash and will now go on to do a study of some "fossils" that were in volcanic ash, including parts of the lungworms, now called a complex of organisms. The fragments will likely be preserved until the next time the fragments are taken to a museum.

WHAT'S THE BIGGEST? Q How have you found them? Scientists have reported that these worms, found in fragments of organisms, may be a new species of worm.
