House Keys Not Handcuffs:

House Keys Not Handcuffs Paul Boden, 2015 House Keys Not Handcuffs is a reflection on over 30 years of homeless organizing in San Francisco. It is an attempt to sort out what went well and what did not as a community begins to organize in order to hold public and private institutions accountable. Its purpose is not only to distill the lessons we have learned but to encourage others to document and reflect on their own experiences in the hope that we can collectively contribute to a stronger more broadly based movement. The book draws from the insights of Paul Boden whose own experiences on the street as an activist and as a co-founder of the Coalition on Homelessness and later the Western Regional Advocacy Project WRAP give him a unique and wide perspective. It is a voice for people who have no power or privilege except for their capacity to organize and demand social justice. Additional essays by friends and longtime allies Art Hazelwood and Bob Prentice round out the book. It also includes 67 images created by printmakers, painters, muralists, cartoonists, and photographers giving a history of the art made in the struggle. Homelessness is a visible manifestation of a society that is lacking in justice. We offer House Keys Not Handcuffs in the hope that it will help reinvigorate a social justice movement in this country that respects all of us as human beings and ensures that all people have a right to exist and a place to live as basic human rights.

Experiencing Cities Mark Hutter, 2015-12-22 This extraordinary text for undergraduate urban students is a reflection of Mark Hutter's academic interests in urban sociology and his life-long passion for experiencing city life. His deep academic roots in the Chicago School of Sociology help inform and appreciate the variety of urban structures and processes and their effect on the everyday lives of people living in cities. This text however extends the Chicago School perspective by combining its traditions with a social psychological perspective derived from symbolic interaction and also with a macro level examination of social organization, social change, stratification, and power in the urban context informed by political economy. This entirely new 3rd Edition has a global outlook on city life and a visual presentation unmatched among books in this genre.

Ask, Listen, Act Luz Vega-Marquis, 2020-10-13 A moving examination of poverty its root causes and how to end it through movement building by a leading philanthropy executive. For the past two decades the Marguerite Casey Foundation has dedicated its resources to building a movement of low income families advocating on their own behalf. Now founding president Luz Vega Marquis offers a history of the foundation intertwined with her own history as a Nicaraguan immigrant whose family was exiled, plunged into poverty and forced to start over in the United States. Ask Listen

Act is riveting in its description of the evolution of an iconoclastic foundation and of Vega Marquis herself as she rises from a bookkeeper to become the first Latina to lead a major national foundation In a powerful counter to the blame laden narrative we tell ourselves about poverty in this nation Vega Marquis explores how the foundation has worked to eliminate poverty through intensive listening movement building and the leadership of families who have experienced poverty firsthand The founder of Hispanics in Philanthropy and a member of numerous philanthropic boards Vega Marquis offers a vivid look at the worlds of philanthropy social change and most importantly the families we are most likely to ignore Beautifully written and filled with moving stories Ask Listen Act explores the world of philanthropy from the perspective of someone who is at once an insider and an outsider offering illuminating insights for all Jacques Books is a bespoke imprint of The New Press dedicated to publishing culturally significant books that might not otherwise garner the attention of a trade publisher

Spent behind the Wheel Julietta Hua,Kasturi Ray,2021-12-21 Exploring professional passenger driving and the gig economy through feminist theories of labor Are taxi drivers in today s era of the ride hail app performing care work akin to domestic and household labor So argue the authors of Spent behind the Wheel Bringing together sociological and legal perspectives with feminist theoretical insights Julietta Hua and Kasturi Ray examine the case study of contemporary professional passenger driving in the United States On the one hand they show the rise of the gig economy has brought new attention to the industry of professional passenger driving On the other hand the vulnerabilities that professional drivers experience remain hidden Drawing on interviews with drivers labor organizers and members of licensing commissions as well as case law and other published resources Hua and Ray argue that working for ride hail companies like Uber and Lyft shares similarities with driving for taxi companies in the impact on driver lives Lyft and Uber sell the idea of industry disruption but in fact they entrench long standing modes of extracting the reproductive labor of their drivers for the benefit of consumer lives Reproductive labor conventionally understood as feminized labor is extracted but masked behind the masculinized racialized bodies of drivers Professional driving is thus best understood alongside domestic and other gendered service work as reproductive labors devalued and often demonetized to benefit the national economy Spent behind the Wheel is a must for readers interested in critical studies of technological change and the gig economy showing how drivers capacities are drained for the benefit of riders corporations and the maintenance of the racial state Praying with Our Feet Lindsey Krinks,2021-02-02 Readers looking for ways to get involved in their communities will find plenty to motivate them in Krinks s personal testament Publishers Weekly At age twenty Lindsey Krinks thought she had her life figured out But a devastating injury and an unexpected encounter with a homeless organizing group disrupted her plans and opened her eyes to the immense suffering and injustice around her Awakened to a fierce pursuit of justice and a faith that called her to pray with her feet Krinks plunged into the underside of American society where she found both staggering loss and astounding love As a street chaplain activist and cofounder of Open Table Nashville Krinks takes us on an unforgettable spiritual journey to tent cities alleys slums and the front lines of movements for justice Praying with Our Feet challenges preconceptions about people who live on the streets calling us to move from charity to justice and to get our hands dirty in the struggle for a better world Readers who are dismayed by the world s suffering but don t know where to start will find much inspiration in this intimate and moving book Includes end of book discussion questions for each chapter Critical Brass Andrew

Snyder,2022-11-08 Critical Brass tells the story of neofanfarrismo an explosive carnival brass band community turned activist musical movement in Rio de Janeiro as Brazil shifted from a country on the rise in the 2000s to one beset by various crises in the 2010s Though predominantly middle class neofanfarristas have creatively adapted the critical theories of carnival to militate for a more democratic city Illuminating the tangible obstacles to musical movement building Andrew Snyder argues that festive activism with privileged origins can promote real alternatives to the neoliberal city but meets many limits and contradictions in a society marked by diverse inequalities Salwa El Shawan Castelo Branco Professor Emerita NOVA

University of Lisbon A People's Guide to the San Francisco Bay Area Rachel Brahinsky,Alexander Tarr,2020-10-06 An alternative history and geography of the Bay Area that highlights sites of oppression resistance and transformation A People s Guide to the San Francisco Bay Area looks beyond the mythologized image of San Francisco to the places where collective struggle has built the region Countering romanticized commercial narratives about the Bay Area geographers Rachel Brahinsky and Alexander Tarr highlight the cultural and economic landscape of indigenous resistance to colonial rule radical interracial and cross class organizing against housing discrimination and police violence young people demanding economically and ecologically sustainable futures and the often unrecognized labor of farmworkers and everyday people The book asks who had and who has the power to shape the geography of one of the most watched regions in the world As Silicon Valley s wealth dramatically transforms the look and feel of every corner of the region like bankers wealth did in the past what do we need to remember about the people and places that have made the Bay Area with its rich political legacies With over 100 sites that you can visit and learn from this book demonstrates critical ways of reading the landscape itself for clues to these histories A useful companion for travelers educators or longtime residents this guide links multicultural streets and lush hills to suburban cul de sacs and wetlands stretching from the North Bay to the South Bay from the East Bay to San Francisco Original maps help guide readers and thematic tours offer starting points for creating your own routes through the region Precarious Enterprise on the Margins Jessica Gerrard,2017-07-21 This book explores the contemporary conditions of marginal work within the context of persistent unemployment poverty and homelessness in wealthy nations Drawing from research concerning three cities Melbourne San Francisco and London Jessica Gerrard offers a rich account of one of the most precarious informal forms of work selling homeless street press The Big Issue and Street Sheet Combining analyses of sellers everyday work experiences with theorizations of marginality working and learning Gerrard provides much needed insight into contemporary forms of entrepreneurial and precarious work This book demonstrates that those who are unemployed and seemingly unproductive are in fact highly productive They value desire and seek practical work experience whilst also struggling to fulfill the basic needs that many of us take for granted Green City Rising Erin

Goodling,2024-05-15 Green City Rising is an ethnographic account of collective organizing for environmental justice in an era of growing concern about environmental and climate challenges The conventional sustainability paradigm promises improved environmental conditions for all such as fresh air and clean water walkable and bikeable neighborhoods green space access and protection from climate crises Yet without particular interventions the pursuit of such environmental amenities often contributes to displacement and further harm for communities that have historically borne the brunt of land theft racial capitalism and toxic industries Drawing on the work of an alliance of grassroots organizations called the Portland Harbor Community Coalition PHCC Erin Goodling shows how communities have come together across lines of race and class to work for a more just green future in Portland Oregon Green City Rising reveals that the violence of settler colonialism and white supremacy are far from endpoints a collective vision for a better future is emerging and ordinary people are building the understanding skills and relationships necessary to usher it in
