Marty,2015 Can faith as trusting God make a difference Absolutely by relieving our anxiety over self justification and the need to scapegoat others When we discover we don't justify ourselves because God has justified us we become free What Sin Boldly points to is the presence of the crucified and living Christ in the human soul placed there by the Holy Spirit And this becomes transformative Sin Boldly provides an experiential analysis of the contrast between self justification and justification by God Those among us with fragile souls are anxious and we shore up our anxiety with walls of self justification that victimize those whom we scapegoat Those among us with broken souls have lost the very moral universe that makes any kind of justification possible and this usually leads to anomie and suicide We must pose the question how can the gospel of grace provide transformation for both fragile and broken souls After an exposition of the Joint Declaration on the Doctrine of Justification this book proposes the following answer trusting in the God of grace relieves anxiety and provides a divine vocation that transcends our moral universe with the promise of forgiveness renewal and resurrection On Losing the Soul Richard K. Fenn,Donald Capps,1995-07-01 The social scientific literature on the self has been marred by a general indifference to the levels of the self that escape observation The literature on the one hand makes claims about the extent of individualism in American society or claims to see a narcissistic social character widespread in the American public On the other hand very little is known about the self at levels that escape observation but these are the levels at which the self is both most vulnerable and we argue most vital In this volume the notion of the soul is put forward as a hypothesis with which to challenge social sciences to explore the self at depths well beyond that of social relationships
