most important lesson of the Vietnam War is that disunity on the home front leads to defeat abroad The divisions we have seen over the war in Iraq are a strong indication that we have not yet learned this lesson The thesis of this book was recently validated by a well known American statesman Henry Kissinger former Secretary of State National Security Adviser to presidents Nixon and Ford and US negotiator at the Paris peace talks to end the war in Vietnam During the Lou Dobbs Tonight show on August 25 2005 he made this statement of historical significance In Vietnam we defeated ourselves with domestic divisions

Unbelievable Charles King, 2018-06-25 This book is a story that starts out young students to get a free or 90 percent scholarships through major corporations In return these students have to work for these companies for ten years or do what they tell them Then a few of them figured out that through the years most of the students who received the free college turn out to be mayors aldermen judges Supreme Court judges lawyers governors state and national representatives or senators All of which the corporations paid all their expenses The only one office they do not have yet is the president A few found out what has been going on so they made a group that sent all their findings to one computer Each one did not know where the computer was These corporations caught on to these few and they are killing them one by one They are trying to figure out who has this information and who the thirteen or so people who are working on it are One problem is that they killed the son of the person who has the computer and all information He declared war on these corporations and all those who are connected with them
