Exploring Inclusive Educational Practices Through Professional Inquiry Gordon L. Porter, Déirdre Smith, 2012-01-01 Practitioners scholars and teacher education students alike can celebrate reading Exploring Inclusive Educational Practices through Professional Inquiry This rich array of case scenarios both illuminates and elaborates the meaning of inclusion in today s schools and tomorrow s visions Twenty five stories from parents teachers school principals and specialists highlight the kind of experiential knowledge that won't be found in typical research reports and district documents about inclusive education. What happens to real people, students and their families, doesn't always resemble policies that can look so good on paper. This book makes a wonderful contribution to better understandings of the challenges of inclusion as well as the commitments positioned alongside values in order to meet those challenges. There are brave and spirited people in these pages, not the least of whom are the children themselves. Professor Luanna H. Meyer, PhD, Director, Jessie Hetherington Centre for Educational Research, Victoria University, New Zealand. This is a book on inclusive education that leaves you with hope and ideas for action. It takes a very difficult and highly charged topic and demonstrates that it is possible to see both the trees and the forest. Michael Fullan, Professor Emeritus, OISE, University of Toronto. We are reminded in the commentaries parents share in this book of how their passionate commitment to good education and their ideas make inclusion work. The case study approach reveals the critical importance of their and many other perspectives in finding solutions to what are so often dismissed as irresolvable dilemmas. They aren't, and this book models exactly the kinds of conversations we need in schools across the country to challenge all of us to stay the course. It's a must read for anyone who wants to make diversity and inclusion a reality in public education today. Michael Bach, Executive Vice President, Canadian Association for Community Living.

Ready for What? M. Elizabeth Graue, 1993-01-01. This book looks at readiness from a different perspective, arguing that we must move away from the readiness as a child characteristic so prevalent in education and the popular press. Instead, readiness is explained as an idea constructed by parents, teachers, and children as they interact in their neighborhoods and communities. Graue describes three communities in the same school district: a middle class suburban town of professionals, a rural working class community, and a group of Hispanic working class families making their way through their children's kindergarten experiences. In each setting, the local meaning of readiness is the underlying theme in the actions taken by parents and their attitudes about their children's first public school experience.

Affirming Black Students' Lives and Literacies Arlette Ingram Willis, Gwendolyn Thompson McMillon, Patriann Smith, 2022. Drawing on the authors' experiences as Black parents, researchers, teachers, and teacher educators, this timely book presents a multipronged approach to affirming Black lives and literacies. The authors believe change is needed not within Black children but in the way they are perceived and educated, particularly in reading, writing, and critical thinking across grade levels. To inform literacy teachers and school leaders, the authors provide a conceptual framework for reimagining literacy instruction based on Black philosophical and theoretical foundations, historical background, literacy research, and authentic experiences of Black students. This important book includes counternarratives about the lives of Black learners, research conducted by Black scholars among Black students, examples of approaches to literacy with Black children that are making a difference, conversations among literacy researchers that move beyond academia, and a model for engaging all students in literacy.

Affirming Black Students Lives and Literacies advocates for adopting a standard of care that will improve and support literacy achievement among today s Black students by rejecting deficit presumptions and embracing the fullness of these students strengths Book Features A counternarrative of Black literacy history lives and learners Narrative examples of Black literacy scholarship by Black scholars who embrace their faith walk as an integral part of their holistic approach to literacy teaching and learning Discussion questions to spur conversations among school administrators parents caregivers politicians reading researchers teacher educators and classroom teachers An array of extant Black scholarship that should inform literacy praxis and research A conceptual framework CARE that is applicable for all learners with a focus on Black literacy learners

Just Add Water Clay Marzo,Robert Yehling,2015 From the best freestyle surfer in the world an inspiring and moving memoir about his ascendance to the top of the surfing world while struggling for most of his young life with undiagnosed Asperger s syndrome Clay Marzo has an almost preternatural gift with a surfboard From his first moments underwater he learned to swim at two months old to his first ventures atop his father s surfboard as a toddler it was obvious that Marzo s single minded focus on all things surfing was unique But not until late in his teens when this surfing phenom was diagnosed with Asperger s syndrome did the deeper reasons for his obsession and his astonishing gift for surfing become clear Just Add Water is the remarkable story of Marzo s rise to the top of the pro surfing world and the personal trials he overcame in making it there Marzo endured a difficult childhood He was a colicky baby who his mother found could be soothed only with water Later as he entered school his undiagnosed Asperger's made it tough for him to relate to his peers and fit in but his relationship with the wave was elemental. Marzocchi could always turn to surfing the only place where he truly felt at peace. Unflinching and inspiring. Just Add Water is a brave memoir from a one of a kind surfing savant who has electrified fans around the world with his gift and whose story speaks boldly to the hope and ultimate triumph of the human spirit. Elementary School Administration and Supervision Willard Slingerland Elsbree, Harold Joseph McNally, Richard Wynn, 1967 Personhood and Music Learning Susan A. O'Neill, 2012-11-01 Personhood and Music Learning edited by Susan O'Neill is a scholarly but accessible exploration of personal action and experience across diverse music learning contexts. It offers interesting and challenging insights into persons making meaning and connections with music critical for understanding choices and decisions that impact people's lives. Perspectives and narratives by 25 authors from around the world focus on musicians, composers and conductors, music teaching and learning with children and adolescents, music education research and professional practice. This book aims to recast theories of personhood in relation to music learning, reassert the person into multiple narratives and restore the centrality of personhood to music education theory, research and practice. Students and researchers internationally as well as music educators in all areas of professional practice will find in these pages thought provoking ideas with profound implications for envisioning the future of music education.
