King Alfred's Jewel (Classic Reprint) Katrina Trask,2018-01-21 Excerpt from King Alfred s Jewel The first place in our list of authorities for the life of Alfred must be given to his own literary works It is true that the evidence they furnish is mostly indirect but it is for that very reason all the more secure About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The Alfred Jewel: A Historical Essay (1901) John Earle,2009-05 This scarce antiquarian book is a facsimile reprint of the original Due to its age it may contain imperfections such as marks notations marginalia and flawed pages Because we believe this work is culturally important we have made it available as part of our commitment for protecting preserving and promoting the world s literature in affordable high quality modern editions that are true to the original work The Grove Encyclopedia of Medieval Art and Architecture Colum Hourihane,2012 This volume offers unparalleled coverage of all aspects of art and architecture from medieval Western Europe from the 6th century to the early 16th century Drawing upon the expansive scholarship in the celebrated Grove Dictionary of Art and adding hundreds of new entries it offers students researchers and the general public a reliable up to date and convenient resource covering this field of major importance in the development of Western history and international art and architecture A list of works on gold and silversmiths' work and jewellery in the National art library Victoria and Albert museum libr,1887 The Athenaeum ,1901 The Bookman ,1901

Wealth and the Material World in the Old English Alfredian Corpus Amy Faulkner,2023 A new materialistic reading of the Alfredian corpus drawing on diverse approaches from thing theory to Augustinian principles of use and enjoyment to uncover how these works explore the material world The Old English prose translations traditionally attributed to Alfred the Great versions of Gregory s Regula pastoralis Boethius De consolatione philosophiae Augustine s Soliloquia and the first fifty Psalms urge detachment from the material world but despite this its flotsam and jetsam from costly treasures to everyday objects abound within them This book reads these original and inventive translations from a materialist perspective drawing on approaches as diverse as thing theory and Augustine s principles of use and enjoyment By focussing on the material it offers a fresh interpretation of this group of translations bringing out their complex often contradictory relationship with the material world It demonstrates that as in the poetic tradition wealth in Alfredian literature is not simply a tool to be used or something to be enjoyed in excess rather in moving away from these two static binaries it shows that wealth is a current flowing both horizontally as an exchange of gifts between humans and vertically as a salvific current between earth and heaven The prose translations are situated in the context of Old English poetry including Beowulf The Wanderer The Seafarer the Exeter Book Riddles and The Dream of the Rood King Alfred David Horspool,2006 Horspool sees Alfred as inextricably linked to the legends and stories that surround him and rather than attempting to separate the myth from the reality he explores how both came together to provide a historical figure that was all things to all men Notes and Queries ,1914 Storyteller David Hamilton,2017-11-21 Storyteller is the third collection of stories written in verse by David Hamilton Each story is told by a historical figure to convey allegory symbolism and metaphor with the author as the overarching narrator The book takes readers on a journey through imaginative worlds where the reader witnesses experiences and meets people they would meet in their own lives Listeners live this as a communal story a shared history that makes us part of it Isolation is filled in emotions link the community Would our communal lives Make an interesting play David s unique collection aligns contemporary content with traditional poetic forms linking the two together to provide a social commentary on the modern world Such technique can be witness in The Lotus Eaters a story that first appeared in Homer s Odyssey Circe s transformation of men into swine is here presented as escapism through drugs David has also updated other traditional stories such as Reynard the Fox to tell the story from the fox s point of view and Chaucer s The Hall of Fame The collection concludes with a sequence of seven Pastorals featuring myths and deities from classical times telling practical stories of husbandry David s latest collection of poetry is wordly and not academic and presents readers with a unique combination of traditional forms and contemporary content The book will appeal to fans of poetry as well as readers that have enjoyed David s previous works King Alfred s Jewel Matador 2014 and Concept Poems Matador 2016 David has contributed essays to the New English Review and Storyteller is advertised in the Literary Review Essentials of Early English Jeremy J. Smith,2022-11-21 The third edition of this successful textbook has been fully revised and updated Essentials of Early English is a practical and highly accessible introduction to the early stages of the English language Old English Middle English and Early Modern English Designed specifically as a handbook for students beginning the study of Early English language whether for linguistic or literary purposes it presumes little or no prior knowledge of the history of English Features of this new edition include Comprehensive updating of the contents to take account of new developments in the subject Newly added sample texts and accompanying notes Links to images of many of the illustrative texts An updated annotated bibliography A contextual introduction of the history of English is provided which includes an outline of English in relation to its origins A deeper analysis is then given on each of the key stages of Early English using the language of King Alfred Chaucer and Shakespeare respectively to illustrate points Thus the essential characteristics of each stage of the language are provided to create the ideal course book for History of English courses and to give the student a firm foundation of basic linguistic knowledge which can be applied to further study King Alfred's Jewel Katrina Spencer Trask,1908 Art-Union ,1872 The Ampleforth Journal ,1901 American Hereford Record and Hereford Herd Book

American Hereford Cattle Breeders' Association,1920      The Ruler Portraits of Anglo-Saxon England Catherine E. Karkov,2004 The author argues that this series of portraits never before studied as a corpus creates a visual genealogy equivalent to the textual genealogies and regnal lists that are so much a feature of late Anglo Saxon culture As such they are an important part of the way in which the kings and queens of early medieval England created both their history and their kingdom BOOK JACKET      A Catalogue of the Ashmolean Museum, Ashmolean Museum,1836      The Anglo-Saxon Review ,1900 The covers are reproductions of rare bookbindings Each volume has Note on the binding By Cyril Davenport

The Art of Anglo-Saxon England Catherine E. Karkov,2011 Providing a fresh appraisal of the art of Anglo Saxon England this text looks at its influence upon the creation of an identity as a nation      Notes and Queries: A Medium of Inter-Communication for Literary Men, Artists, Antiquaries, Genealogists, Etc ,1858
