Association Guide to Providing Consumer and Patient Health Information Michele Spatz,2014-05-01 Comprised of fifteen chapters written by experienced consumer health librarians The Medical Library Association Guide to Providing Consumer and Patient Health Information is designed for library and information science graduate students as well as librarians new to health and medical librarianship regardless of library setting It is comprehensive in scope covering all aspects of consumer and patient health and medical information from their humble grassroots beginnings to the ever evolving applications of new technology and social media In between the mundane aspects of health and medical librarianship such as needs assessment costs budgeting and funding and staffing are discussed Adding richness to this discussion are the coverage of more sensitive topics such as patient friendly technology ethical issues in providing consumer and patient health information meeting the needs of diverse populations and responding to individuals from various cultural backgrounds No comprehensive picture of consumer and patient health librarianship would be complete without addressing the critical importance of marketing and strategic partnerships such discussions round out this invaluable guide Patients

today must be knowledgeable enough to participate in their health and well being Shorter hospital stays changing reimbursement patterns and the gradual shift towards focusing on proactively maintaining health and managing disease require patients to be informed and actively engaged Education information and understanding are important components of actively engaged patients Correspondingly in today's world there is a glut of information resources available through the Internet from YouTube videos to Googling to blogs and Twitter feeds What is lacking in these information rich times is the relevance of meaning and context for those who ask Does this health and medical information apply to me and my unique clinical picture or How do I use this information As knowledge navigators information technology wizards and content experts librarians offer focused responses to individuals specific and highly personal health and medical information queries In a new healthcare world order of optimizing health and minimizing hospitalizations such a service is invaluable Sadly there still exists in our highly networked and technological age an information gap for those who struggle in obtaining meaningful health or medical information These individuals may be foreign born non English speaking poor rural aged or semi literate Whatever their status librarians must have the wherewithal to find germane resources and also help create responsive mechanisms to bridge that health information gap for vulnerable citizens The Medical Library Association Guide to Providing Consumer and Patient Health Information will guide you on the road to providing that response ECMO Retrieval

Program Foundation Anton Sabashnikov, Thorsten Wahlers, 2023-02-06 This book should represent a guideline for launching an extracorporeal membrane oxygenation ECMO program It describes in detail particularities and special features of planning setting up developing structuring and maintaining of ECMO support program for instable patients with the need of transportation from peripheral hospitals to an experienced ECMO centre for further treatment Authors have condensed both the current evidence and Guidelines on ECMO and eCPR support and have highlighted in detail the issue of planning setting up developing structuring and maintaining this program with the view to helping other centres launching this life saving service taking into account their experience in this important field of medicine In this context the main benefit of this book is the outstanding and particular aim to educate the reader in developing and maintaining a large spectrum ECMO program The volume richly illustrated and written by KOLs using an expository writing style to promote the readability will appeal to intensivists anesthesiologists and cardiologists as well as cardiac and thoracic surgeons and pneumologists

Miracle Cure Sally Pipes, Fraser Institute (Vancouver, B.C.), Pacific Research Institute for Public Policy, 2004 America has wealth innovation and access to the best of everything So why is our health care system so broken Why does it cost more than ever and deliver less How do we solve the problems of the uninsured and seniors who lack drug coverage And equally important why is the Canadian system widely touted as a sparkling example of compassion and universal access actually a disastrous model to be avoided The Gerontological Prism: Developing Interdisciplinary Bridges Jeffrey Michael Clair, Richard Allman, 2018-10-26 The Gerontological Prism promotes disciplinary cooperation in aging research and practice

To some extent each chapter explores a unified objective that of generating a disciplinary blind gerontology The fundamental assumption throughout this book is that the aging individual and society can be enhanced by an understanding of the correlates of basic social behavioral demographic economic political ethical and biomedical processes involving aging Each author touches on issues that have both social psychological and practical policy significance They aim toward sensitizing the reader to the possibilities of a properly informed interdisciplinary approach to gerontology

Caring for the Heart W Bruce Fye,2015-02-03 This groundbreaking book weaves together three important themes It describes major developments in the diagnosis and treatment of heart disease in the twentieth century explains how the Mayo Clinic evolved from a family practice in Minnesota into one of the world s leading medical centers and reveals how the invention of new technologies and procedures promoted specialization among physicians and surgeons Caring for the Heart is written for general readers as well as health care professionals historians and policy analysts Unlike traditional institutional or disease focused histories this book places individuals and events in national and international contexts that emphasize the interplay of medical scientific technological social political and economic forces that have resulted in contemporary heart care Patient stories and media perspectives are included throughout to help general readers understand the medical and technological developments that are described The book is a synthetic study but it is written so that readers may pick and choose the chapters of most interest to them Another feature of the book is that readers may follow the stories without looking at the notes Those who are interested in delving deeper into the main topics will find a wealth of carefully chosen references that offer greater detail and additional perspectives The descriptions and interpretations that fill the book benefit from the fact that the author has been a practicing cardiologist and medical historian for almost four decades This is mainly a twentieth century story but it begins earlier before there were physicians who were identified as cardiologists and at a time when medical specialization was just emerging in America The final chapter which addresses present day concerns about health care costs counterbalances earlier ones that might be read as celebrations of new technologies Essentials of Vascular Laboratory Diagnosis Emile R. Mohler,Marie

Gerhard-Herman,Michael R. Jaff,2008-04-15 This highly practical diagnostic tool is an indispensable resource for both the office and the noninvasive cardiovascular laboratory The accompanying CD contains images and video clips displaying the dynamic aspects of vascular pathology to aid diagnosis and learning Each image can be enlarged to enable the user to fully discern the main features and for ease the CD can be searched by image type condition disease or techniques Collected Papers of the Mayo Clinic and the Mayo Foundation Mayo Clinic,1928 Medicare Program's Quality Assurance Process United States.
